

Legion contributes

Flo Carswell, secretary of Branch 120 of the Royal Canadian Legion, left, and Nadene Beadley, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of Branch 120, right, make a presentation to Margaret Felce, coordinator of external services for the Halton Hills Public Libraries. The Legion and the Ladies Auxiliary each donated $500 for the purchase of talking books. The library has close to 2,000 talking books for those who cannot read due to visual impairments, Parkinson's Disease and other conditions.

GEORGETOWN AND DISTRICT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Chair of the Nominating Committee is interested in receiving applications for membership on the Board of Trustees of Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital. The Nominating Committee reviews the applications and recommends appointments to the Hospital Corporation at its Annual General Meeting to be held June 27, 1996.

Established in 1961, Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital is a primary, acute and long term care facility. As a primary health care provider, the Hospital is committed to identifying the health care needs for Halton Hills and developing programs in co-operation with other health care agencies. The Hospital's mission is "As your health care partner we will enhance the quality of life in our community".

The Hospital Board's responsibilities are to:

- (a) Establish and update goals and policies for the Hospital;
- (b) Ensure the Hospital's financial stability and to maintain a harmonious relationship with the government and allied agencies;
- (c) Select, define responsibilities and evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer;
- (d) Ensure that the Hospital is meeting the community's needs.

Community residents interested in serving on the Board of Trustees are encouraged to send their resumes by April 22, 1996, in confidence, to:
