It seems John Smith (Mark Tiller) has everything he could ask for in the world, his wife Barbara (Elizabeth Barfoot) and a steady job as a taxi driver. Problem is, he's got another wife as well, and when Georgetown Little Theatre's Run For Your Wife opens April 19 at John Elliott Theatre, John will have some heavy duty explaining to do, guaranteeing a laugh a minute.

GLT's spring comedy benefits Bereavement Centre

By MARY CARPENTER
Special to The Independent/Free Press

Laughter is the best medicine. Most therapists now recognize the value of humor for relieving stress and promoting good health. Do yourself a favor. On Thursday, April 18 at 8 p.m., the Georgetown Little Theatre presents Run For Your Wife, a hilarious British comedy at the John Elliott Theatre. Proceeds for that evening's performance go to benefit the work of the Bereavement Resource Centre of Halton Hills, and will be used to help bereaved individuals in Georgetown and Acton, learn in a most stressful time, how to laugh again. Tickets are available from a board member of the Bereavement Resource Centre of Halton Hills, at the Cultural Centre's box office (4-8 p.m. Tuesdays to Thursdays, 1-5 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays) or call Maggie, 877-6065 or Mary, 877-5537.
