Raiders lose in overtime

The hockey season came to an abrupt end for the Georgetown PDS Minor Peeewe Raiders at 9:27 of overtime Wednesday evening.

The local crew trailed Vaughan 2-1 in the best-of-five Ontario Minor Hockey Association final and needed a win to prolong the series.

That win never came as the Rangers notched the overtime goal for a 2-1 victory.

It was the third time in the past three seasons that this group of Georgetown players had been to the OMHA championship and the third time they have come away as bridesmaids.

After a scoreless opening frame the Raiders drew first blood with Ryan Field blasting one to the top corner midway through the second frame.

Vaughan rallied to tie the score before the period ended. The third frame decided nothing forcing the extra period.

Georgetown Minor Hockey wrapped up its house league season with Day of Champions last Saturday. Among the individual award winners in the bantam division were back row (from left) Jason Armstrong (Kentucky Fried Chicken MVP), Joe Goodhew (Georgetown Referees Assoc. MVP). Bantam Hurricanes claim crown

The Hurricane "AAA" minor bantams capped off a successful 1995/96 season by defeating the Grey/Bruce Highlanders by a total score of 6-5 in a two-game, total goals series, to capture the South Central Triple "A" Association league championship.

The minor bantam squad had completed regular season play with a record of 20-8-4, which saw them finish in second place in the 11-team league - just behind first place Niagara Falls. Strong emphasis on team discipline resulted in the 'Canes being the least penalized team in the league.

The OMHA playdowns saw the Hurricanes eliminated after the second round, in a short best-of-three series which was dominated by outstanding goaltending from the Grey/Bruce team.

After returning to league playoff action, Halton eliminated Chinguacousy, St. Catharines and Brampton before taking their revenge against Grey/Bruce in the final round.
