

THANK YOU

We would like to thank the special group of people who took the time and effort to organize the best Stag and Doe ever.

Also, thank you to all our family and friends who celebrated with us. You made the night special to us both.

Love Nicole and Gary

It should be against the law to look that good . . . especially at your age!!

Happy Birthday Sandra

Pedestrian update

An 18-year-old Acton woman is in serious condition at Hamilton General Hospital after she was struck while crossing the road Friday at 8:20 p.m. The investigation into the accident is continuing. The van driven by a 38-year-old Acton resident has been released. The woman was walking her dogs at the time.

Garage break-in

Someone broke into an unlocked garage at a Peel St., Acton residence overnight Saturday and removed about $225-worth of tools, police said. They have no suspects.

Fail-to-remain

There are few details available on a fail-to-remain accident reported to police Wednesday. About $1,000-damage was done to the driver's door of a Georgetown vehicle sometime over the past month. It could have happened in a parking lot.

Police

Blotter

Deer killed

A deer was destroyed by police at 1:15 a.m. Thursday to prevent further suffering after it was struck at Eighth Line and Argyle Rd., police said.

Roast and butter

A 55-year-old Acton man was charged with shoplifting at the IGA in Acton Wednesday afternoon, police said. Someone tried to leave the store with some butter and a small roast.

House break-in

Someone broke into a Norman Ave., Acton residence on Tuesday during the day. They got in through an unlocked garage door and rummaged through the bedroom, making off with $500 cash.
