Create your own at Variations Cafe

The owner of the recently opened Variations Cafe in Georgetown says freshness and quality ingredients are top priorities at the restaurant.

The cafe, located at 348 Guelph St. (at Delrex Blvd.), offers a wide variety of fresh made sandwiches, soup and salads.

Variations Cafe owner Rhonda Misener said market research in the area revealed a "create your own sandwich" concept was needed in town. So that is what Misener, a Norval resident, set out to offer.

Sandwich fixings include corned beef, genoa salami, old fashioned ham, pastrami, roast beef, spiced meatloaf, turkey, chopped egg, salmon salad, seafood salad, and tuna salad. Cheddar, cream, mozzarella and swiss cheese are available.

The bread selection includes; bagels, kaiser rolls, onion buns, pita pockets, and light rye, white and whole wheat bread. Garnishes available are; butter, margarine, dill pickles, hot peppers, ketchup, lettuce, mayonnaise, mustard, tomatoes and onions.

Two soups are available daily along with daily specials.

Caesar, fruit, chef, julienne and Variations Special Salad Plate are the salads available.

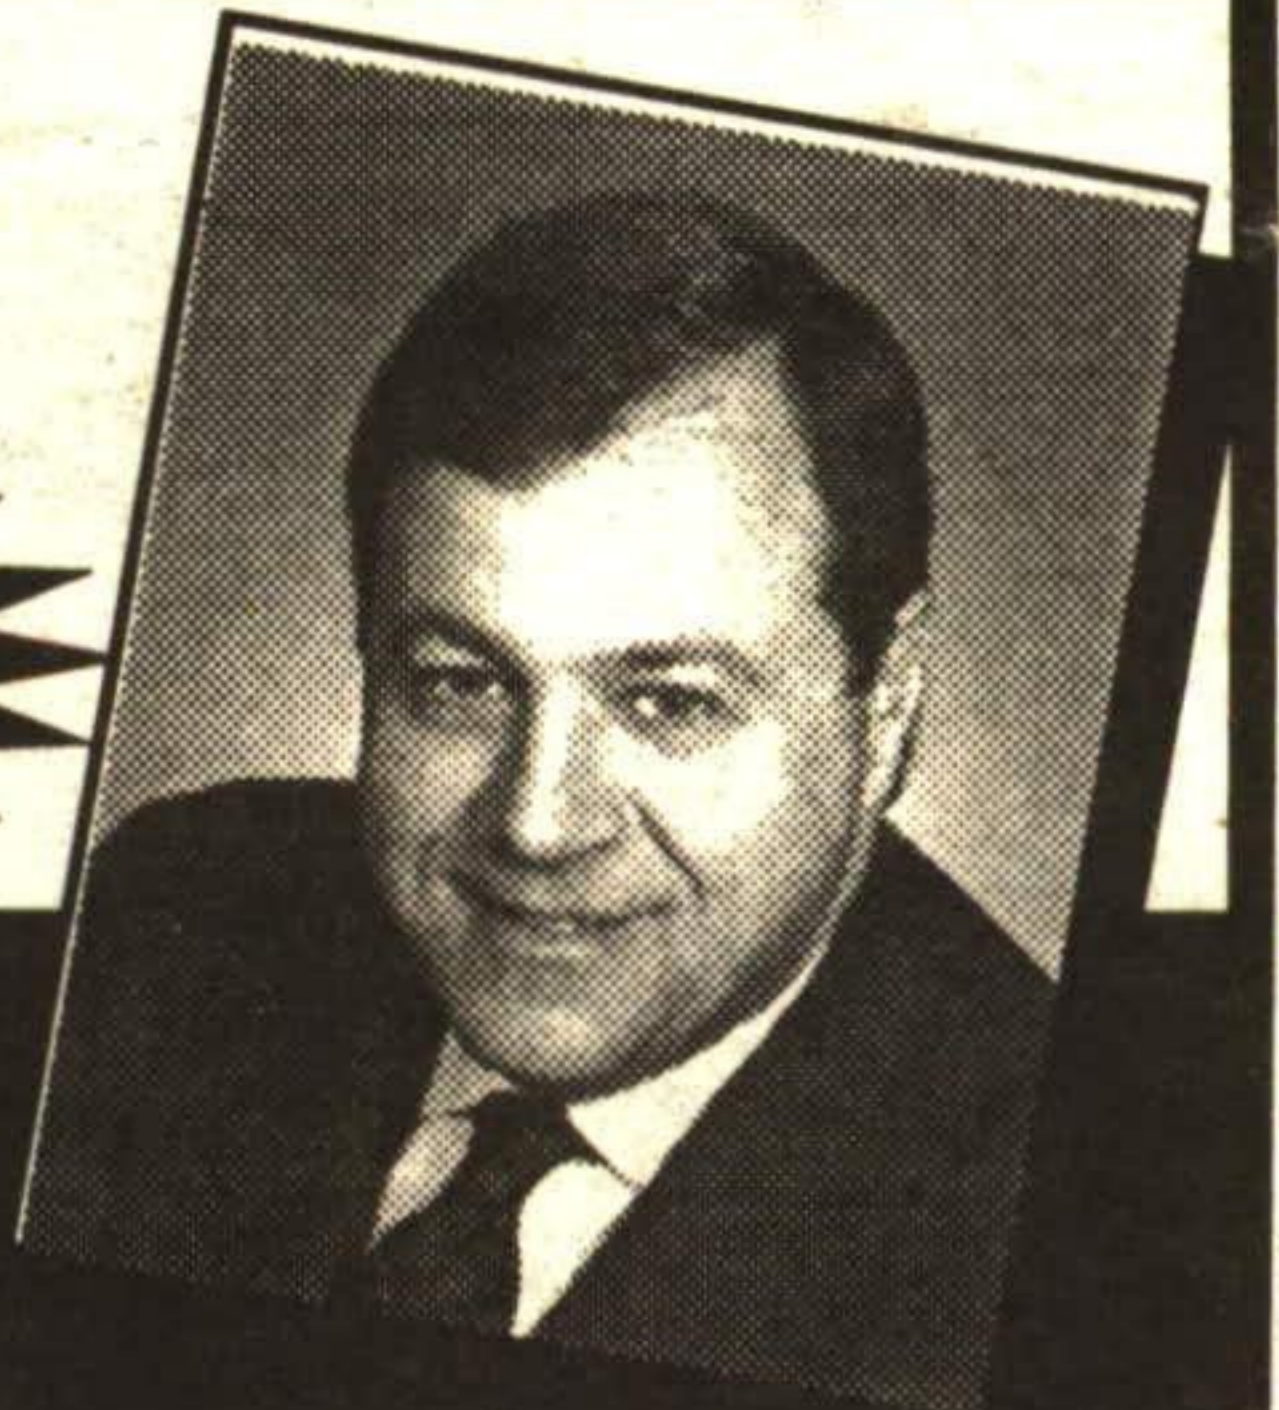

Muffins, toast, bagels and scrambled eggs are available for breakfast.

Misener who currently works full time as an operations manager for a group of medical clinics in Toronto said the cafe is a family operation.

The no smoking cafe seats about 22 people. People can either eat there or take their food out. Food can be pre-ordered and ready in ten minutes. To order call 873-6391. The cafe is open Monday to Friday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
