

Sunday's a busy day

There's plenty to do today (Sunday, May 5).

Here's a just a few:

- The Dutch Canadian Remembrance Committee will place a boulder with a bronze plaque at the Remembrance Park at 2 p.m. to say thanks Canada for the liberation of the Netherlands in May 1945.

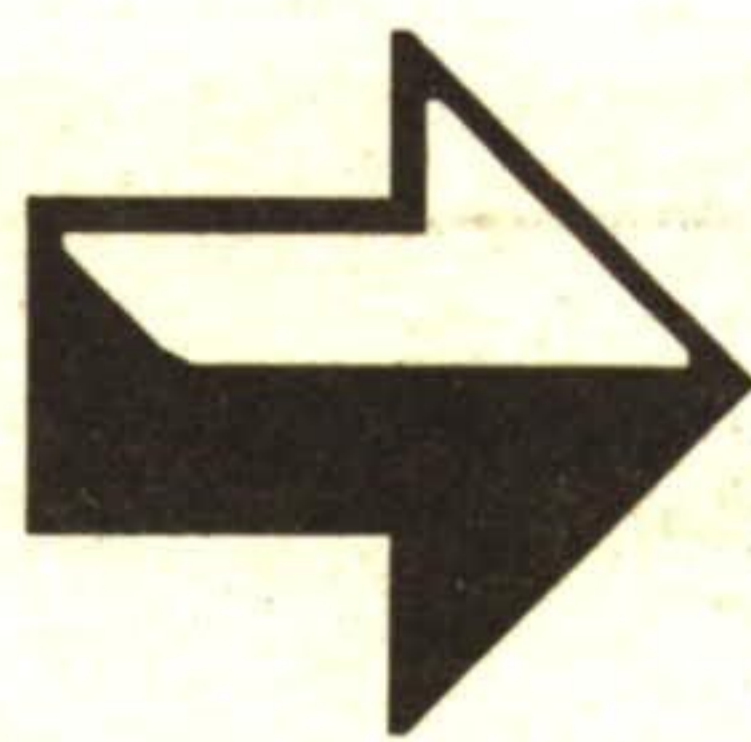

- Enjoy an afternoon of music with the Acton Citizens Band 2-4 p.m., 85 Wallace St., Acton. Refreshments. Free. Donations accepted.

- University Women's Club is combining its annual used Book and Toy Sale with an once-only Dig Your Own liquidation of heritage plants at the Dominion Seed House, Guelph St. at Maple Ave., Georgetown, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Bring your shovel. Most books under $2. Daylily clumps $1, Iris clumps $2, Peonies, $4. Until 2 p.m. Georgetown Rebel wrestling team will be operating the food concession.

- The Halton Hills Heart and Stroke Chapter teams will ride The Big Bike, a 30-seater bicycle starting from the parking lot beside the Georgetown police station. Info: Debbie Dunsire or Karen Buchanan at 853-5419 or Bob and Marny Malcolmson, 877-2972.

- The Williams Mill Creative Arts Studios and Gallery, 515 Main St. Glen Williams hosts the Spring Arts Festival, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Demonstrations, music, poetry, refreshments and more. Winter Works will open at the Terra Cotta Forge, 201 King St., Terra Cotta, noon to 5 p.m. (the artists present).

Kinsmen auction on Monday

The Kinsmen Club of Georgetown presents their 12th annual TV Auction Monday, May 6 on Halton Cable Systems Channel 4.

More than 200 items donated by local businesses will be auctioned off in the four and a half hour event, which will run from 6 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the auction will be used for community service projects.
