

Local man receives honorary doctorate

Tom Ramautarsingh, a Georgetown resident, received an Honorary Doctorate of Education at a ceremony in the Albany Club, Toronto, on March 12. The degree was conferred by Wolfe's The University of King's College in appreciation of Ramautarsingh's contributions to education and society.

T. RAMAUTARSINGH

Dr. Ramautarsingh, who taught at Georgetown High School for 23 years, has been the recipient of the Queen's Silver Jubilee Medal, 125th Confederation Medal, Georgetown Citizen of the year as well as awards from the Ontario

Secondary School Teachers' Federation. He was president of the Halton Branch of OSSTF for two years and served on many provincial committees of OSSTF and OTF. He also served at York University, Wilfrid Laurier University and the University of Toronto.

Ramautarsingh paid tribute to his wife and family for their support over the years. He noted education was now at another crossroads with vast implications for society. He recommended a strong vision within a framework to solve many of the problems.
