

Jennas Beach Boy serves notice in Graduate Series

Jennas Beach Boy sent out a strong signal that he plans on being just as tough to beat this year as a four year-old as he was last season at three. The world champion pacer took on harness racing's top Free-For-Allers in Saturday night's $50,000 leg of the Graduate Series at Mohawk Raceway and left a lasting impression.

In just his second start of 1996 Jennas Beach Boy, driven by Bill Fahy, took over the lead from Ball And Chain after a blazing :27 opening quarter and was immediately challenged by previously undefeated Hi Ho Silverheels. The pair hooked up through middle fractions :55 and 1:24.2 before Hi Ho Silverheels finally tired and backed away. Then in the stretch Ball And Chain came out to take his best shot but Jennas Beach Boy was up to the task, gamely holding him off to win by a nose in a sparkling 1:53 mile. Make A Deal was third and Village Connection, who was eighth at the half-mile mark, weaved his way through a wall of horses to finish fourth, just 1 1/4 lengths back of the winner.

With combined earnings of the 10 horses totalling more than $7.8 million, it was the richest field ever assembled in Mohawk

Raceway's 33-year history.

Sent off as the heavy 1-5 betting favorite, Jennas Beach Boy has now won 23 of 30 career starts and banked $1,548,077 for owners Lee and Linda DeVisser of Holland, Michigan. A two-time Cadillac Breeders Crown winner, he's now unbeaten in seven Canadian starts dating back to 1994.

Hi Ho Silverheels, who entered the Graduate with eight consecutive wins this year, finished a tired eighth after enduring a rugged trip on the outside. Though disappointed with the outcome, trainer and co-owner Milan Smith indicated it sets up a great rivalry for the balance of the season. "Hi Ho was parked a long way tonight and that was too much for him," said Smith. "(But) we'll beat Jennas Beach Boy yet this year. We'll draw inside of him one start. I'm not worried, my horse will be back." Hi Ho Silverheels is expected to return to Ontario in August for the $250,000 Canadian Pacing Derby.

McGourty leads Sons to victory

The Toronto Truck peanut lacrosse team continues to have a tough time through the early going of the 1996 Halton Hills Lacrosse season, with a 7-0 loss to McGourty & Sons.

It was the second game in as many weeks that the crew ended up on the short end of a lopsided shutout. Leading the attack for McGourty & Sons was Adam McGourty with five goals while Ryan Haynes slammed home the other two. Assists went to Russel Peacock and Cody McCulloch.

In a much closer peanut battle, Sargent Landscaping edged J.Henderson Proshop 1-0, with Sean Terry netting the game's lone marker.

Justin Gibson unloaded with four goals to lead Georgetown Optimists to a 4-3 triumph over Arnold's Greenhouse in tyke division play. Counting goals for Greenhouse were Cameron Noble, Greg Henry and Michael Krashay while Noble and Krashay also drew assists.

Georgetown Chrysler bested Galvcast 5-2, thanks largely to a three-goal effort by Braden Artem. Alex Paterson and Mitchell Thompson registered the other goals and Ryan O'Connell picked up a pair of assists. Galvcast goals were scored by Kevin Deforest and Adrian Schroeder.

In novice action, Nick Newby netted three goals to anchor his Georgetown Lions Club past Coalyard Patty's 5-2.

Anthony Muphy and Ben Reid counted the other goals for the victors and assists went to Anthony Price, Ryan Williams, Brett Maines and Tim Laidlaw.

Andrew Friolet scored both Coalyard Patty's goals while Brad Torress, Scott Hall-Reid and John Dalrymple drew assists.

Matt Lyons' four-goal performance wasn't quite good enough in J.V. Clothing's 8-6 loss to Kinsmen Club.

Also scoring for J.V. Clothing were Jason MacLellan and Steve Terry while MacLellan also drew an assist. Tim Walinga, Chad Artem and Daine Kuiken-Rogers all tallied twice for Kinsmen Club and Dan Saliassis and Mike Adcock added singles. Assists went to Saliassis and Brian Houghton.

The biggest blowout of the week took place in the peewee division, where Ken's Auto destroyed Fargo Transport 12-3. Leading the scoring parade was Adam Lindsay with four goals while Thomas Stokes had three. Matt Wolfer and Kyle Kennery each tallied twice and Brandon Pearce scored the other.

Assists went to Lindsay, Shaun Prentice and Joel MacDonald. Scoring for Fargo were Matt Pignatell with two and Ben Williams with the other.

Nurseland Farms edge Georgetown Toyota 6-5 in the other peewee game, with Darryl Veltman netting three goals for the winners. Dustin McKnight scored twice for Nurseland Farms with teammate Chad Henry netting the other. Assists went to Veltman (2), McKnight, Steven Atkinson, Matt Murchison and Chris Beaulieu.

Scoring for Toyota were Nick Mastro with three and Dan Walinga with two. Jordan Armstrong and Ryan Louth drew the assists.

MacKenzie & Chapman dumped George & Dragon 7-3 in bantam play, with a five-goal showing by Peter Veltman. Alex Durham and Tyler Pearce scored the other goals. Assists went to Brian Arnold, Bill Campbell, Veltman, Durham and Pearce.

Brandon Valente tallied twice for George & Dragon while Ryan Norton scored the other. Chris Henderson, Nate Cardon, Ian Cartwright and Simon Saulnier drew assists.

Legion beat Apple Auto Glass 7-5. Scoring for Legion were Kyle Atkinson with three and Greg Bidwell and Brydon Butterworth with two each. Assists went to Butterworth (2), David Ainsworth, Atkinson, Bidwell, Kyle Findley, Adam Tyler and John Tummonds.

Jason Armstrong turned a hat-trick for Apple Auto Glass while Taylor Hall and Matt Walinga scored the others. Hall, K. Hall, John McGuire and Eric Zaborski posted assists.
