

HALTON HILLS
WEEKEND

SPORTS

Sports

SHORTS

Bowlers prepare

The Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club will be starting their 1996 summer season later this month. Bowling will take place Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning at 6:45 p.m. Three nights of trial bowling will be offered for $1. For more information, call Marion Hogan at 877-4277 or Bette Barclay at 877-2732.

Vipers stung

The Georgetown Vipers minor league football team was stung by their own venom Tuesday evening in Brampton, where they were bombed 26-6 by the Brampton Warriors.

The Vipers struck early with a big 55-yard touchdown run by Matt Paterson in the opening quarter. However, their offense was largely ineffective after that - with three drives cut short due to fumbles and an interception.

The offense saw little time in the second half as well.

A number of Georgetown defenders turned in strong outings, including Richard Grace who collected a total of 17 tackles on the night.

Linebackers Noah Malinosky and Gord Morrison who also effective, with seven and eight tackles respectively. They also combined for a pair of quarterback sacks. Defensive lineman Doug Bell made nine tackles.

The team took on the 0-1 Brampton Hornets yesterday (Saturday) afternoon.

In-line lessons

Learn how to in-line skate (roller blade) properly and safely with adult and youth lessons beginning May 29th. The four-week course, offered by the local Rec. Department, will be taught by certified coaches. For more information, call 873-2600 ext. 262.

Eagles unbeaten

The Georgetown Baseball Association Eagles have opened up their Central Ontario Baseball Association (COBA) season with a win and a tie in two outings.

The Eagles opened the season with a 5-3 win over rival Milton on the road. Simon Ford led the attack for the Eagles pounding out a pair of doubles and cashing in three runners. Nico Zentl, Paul DiMarco and Matt Walker all chipped in with singles while Sean Hill picked up a single RBI.

The following evening the Eagles opened their home season, earning a 3-3 draw with Waterdown in a nail biter.

Andrew Coe had three singles in the contest while Zentl pounded out one hit and drove in two runs.

The Eagles are competing in the COBA 'B' division with Milton, Streetsville, Oakville, Bloor and Waterdown this season.

Their next home game is slated for the Georgetown Fairgrounds this Tuesday beginning at 8 p.m.

The Georgetown Raiders handed out special honors at their annual rep hockey banquet recently. In front (from left) are Junior Division Vezina Trophy winners Josh Hunt and Chris McCulloch. The major novice netminders earned the Hockey Moms Award. Chris Henderson, along with Joe Garvey (absent) of the minor peewees picked up the David Hume Trophy as Senior Division Vezina winners. At back are midget MVP and Paul Fendley Memorial Trophy winner Brad Kouyoumjian and the Jeremiah Fendley award winner as most congenial midget Steve Sheppard.

Raiders hand out hardware

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Association (GMHA) wrapped up the 1995/96 rep season recently with the annual awards banquet and coaches appreciation evening.

Teams and individuals were recognized for their outstanding efforts over the past year.

The minor and major atom Raiders split the votes for this year's Gilmer Family Trophy, presented to the most successful minor or major atom team. Both teams reached the OMHA semifinals.

Chris Henderson and Joe Garvey of the minor peewee came away with the David Hume Trophy (senior rep vezina) for the top senior goaltending duo while the Hockey Moms Vezina Trophy (junior rep vezina) was won by Chris McCulloch and Josh Hunt of the major novices.

The Yeo/Christie Memorial Trophy for most improved senior team went to the major peewees while the Murray Ezeard Memorial Trophy for most improved junior team went to the novice II squad.

Goaltender Brad Kouyoumjian backstopped his way to the Paul Fendley Memorial Trophy for most valuable midget player. The Jeremiah Fendley Memorial Trophy for most congenial midget player, was presented to Steve Sheppard.

The following is a list of individual award winners in each division.

Georgetown Rep Esso Individual Awards

7-year-old Selects: Most Valuable Player (MVP) - Michael Larose, Most Sportsmanlike Player (MSP) - Chris Darling, Most Improved Player (MIP) - Kyle Westwood.

Minor Novice: MVP - Kevin Greer, MSP - Michael Carter, MIP - Michael Clarizio. Minor Novice II: MVP - James Mountford, MSP - Daniel Ples, MIP - Jordan Jacobs.

Major Novice: MVP - Travis Bland/Matt Velten, MSP - Mark Boycott/Peter Tregunna, MIP - Nick McLaughlin/Shawn Dennie.

Minor Atom: MVP - Jordan Cole, MSP - Thomas Elinesky, MIP - Marcus Sargent. Minor Atom II: MVP - Eric Thompson, MSP - Byron Jacome, MIP - Joel MacDonald.

Major Atom: MVP - Dan Walinga, MSP - Scott Rostrup,

MIP - Dustin McKnight.

Minor Peewee: MVP - Kyle Hotham, MSP - Tim Mansfield, MIP - Brad Snow. Minor

Peewee II: MVP - Mike Noonan, MSP - Bill Campbell/Allan Harvey, MIP - Mike Tregunna/Chad Fleming.

Major Peewee: MVP - Pete Veltman, MSP - Ryan Inglis, MIP - Matt Hess/Nate Cardon.

Minor Bantam: MVP - Ryan Carter, MSP - Derek Mitchell, MIP - Trevor Cash.

Major Bantam: MVP - Judd Richardson, MSP - Brian Normore, MIP - Brian Normore.

Midget: MVP - Brad Kouyoumjian, MSP - Sean Durkin, MIP - Jason Moore, Fendley Award - Steve Sheppard.

The Raiders also honored some of their coaches, managers and executive staff at their annual coaches appreciation evening.

Special presentations were made to Lary White, Brian James and John Henderson for their contributions.

White was honored for 25 years as a coach in the midget/juvenile house league and picked up the Bill Hawkins Trophy as Coach of the Year for the senior house league divisions.

Kevin Hotham earned Gerry Perkins Trophy as Coach of the Year status for the house league atom and peewee divisions while Ray Authier received the GMHA Trophy for the tyke and novice divisions of house league.

The novice II tandem of Rob McKnight and Laura Lintaman were honored as Junior Rep Coach and Manager of the Year.

Dennis Norton of the peewee II squad earned Pearce Family trophy as Senior Coach of the Year while Robin Inscoe of the major peewees picked up the Hume Family trophy as Senior Manager of the Year.

Also honored were the volunteers of the GMHA Initiation program. They included John Murphy, Don Norton, Dennis Norton, Iain Murphy, Topher Baker, Garth Pride, Mike Limina, Sean Hinds, Ron Lefebvre, Ian Wilcox, Bob Devolin, Gerald Jackman, Herb Hume, Mike Stevenson, Richard Smith and Norm Pride.

Sabres honor top performers

The Acton Sabres Minor Hockey organization recently wrapped up their 1995/96 season with award presentations for top rep players at every age level.

The following is a list of award winners for the past year.

Novice: Most Valuable Player (MVP) - Andrew Robitaille, Most Sportsmanlike Player (MSP) - Patrick Collins, Most Improved Player (MIP) - Chad Artem, Carol Smith Award - Kyle Strong.

Novice II: MVP - Kyle McDonald, MSP - Scott Timmings, MIP - Michael Bentley, Carol Smith - Matt Locke.

Atom: MVP - Sean Kirk, MSP - Steve Atkinson, MIP - Adam Lindsay, Carol Smith - Matt Wolfer.

Atom II: MVP - Brian Field, MSP - Colin Sheehan, MIP - Ben Williams, Carol Smith - Chris Schiller.

Peewee: MVP - Joey Thompson, MSP - Tom Mahon, MIP - Chris Stanhope, Carol Smith - Ben Williams.

Peewee II: MVP - Rob Morris & Chad Greenwood, MSP - David Metcalfe, MIP - Chris Near, Carol Smith - Steve Monaghan.

Bantam: MVP - Bob Brooks, MSP - Mike Palmer, MIP - Chad Farlow, Carol Smith - Thomas Wolfer.

Bantam II: MVP - Derek Lockerbie, MSP - Steve Protopapas, MIP - Matt Schrock, Carol Smith - Paul Withers.

Midget: MVP - Mike Kempton, MSP - Jason Pembleton, MIP - Ryan Preuter, Carol Smith - Scott McIntyre.

In addition the Sabres recognized midget player Derrick McIntyre with a special award.

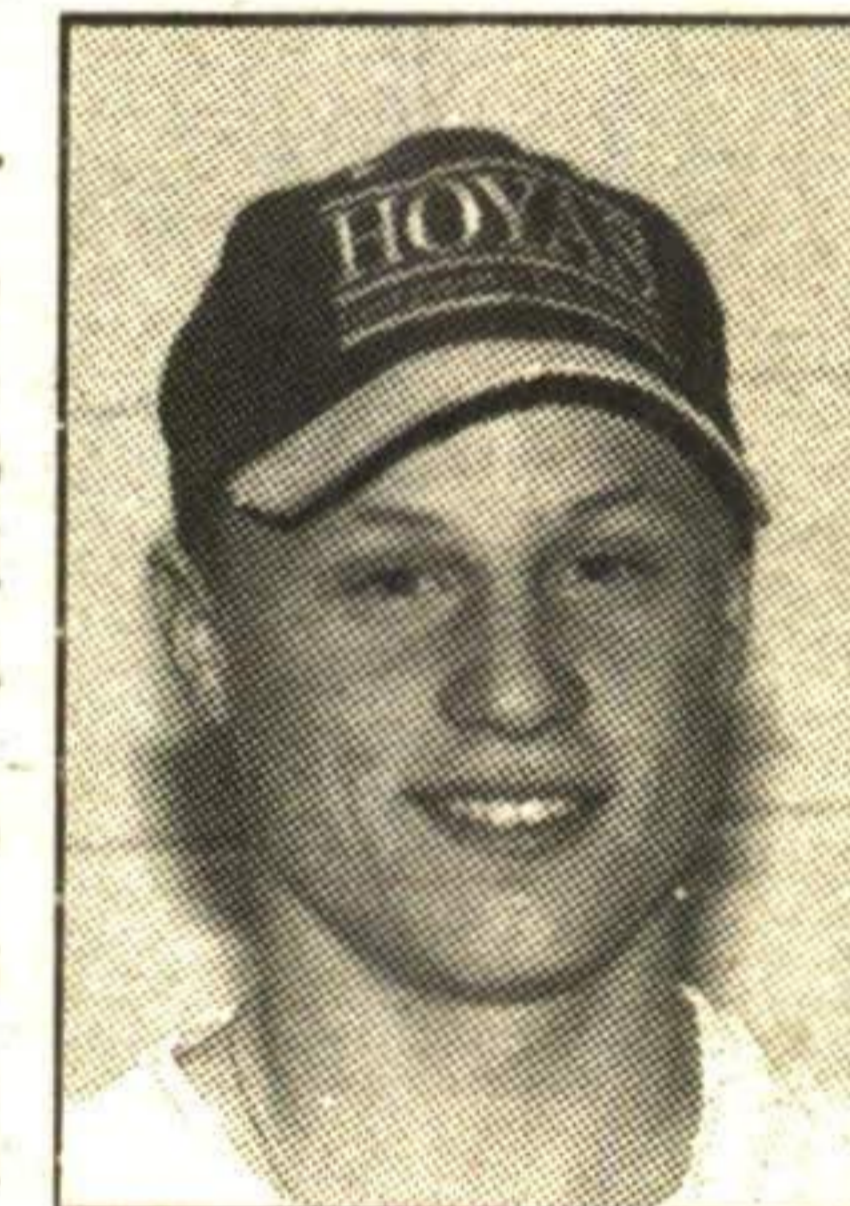

McIntyre earned the Garry Taillefer Memorial Trophy for outstanding contribution to the Acton Sabres hockey program.

Three executive members that stepped down were also honored for their contributions over the years. Nicki Barends, Donna Metcalfe and Wally Selihar received tokens of appreciation from the AMHA.

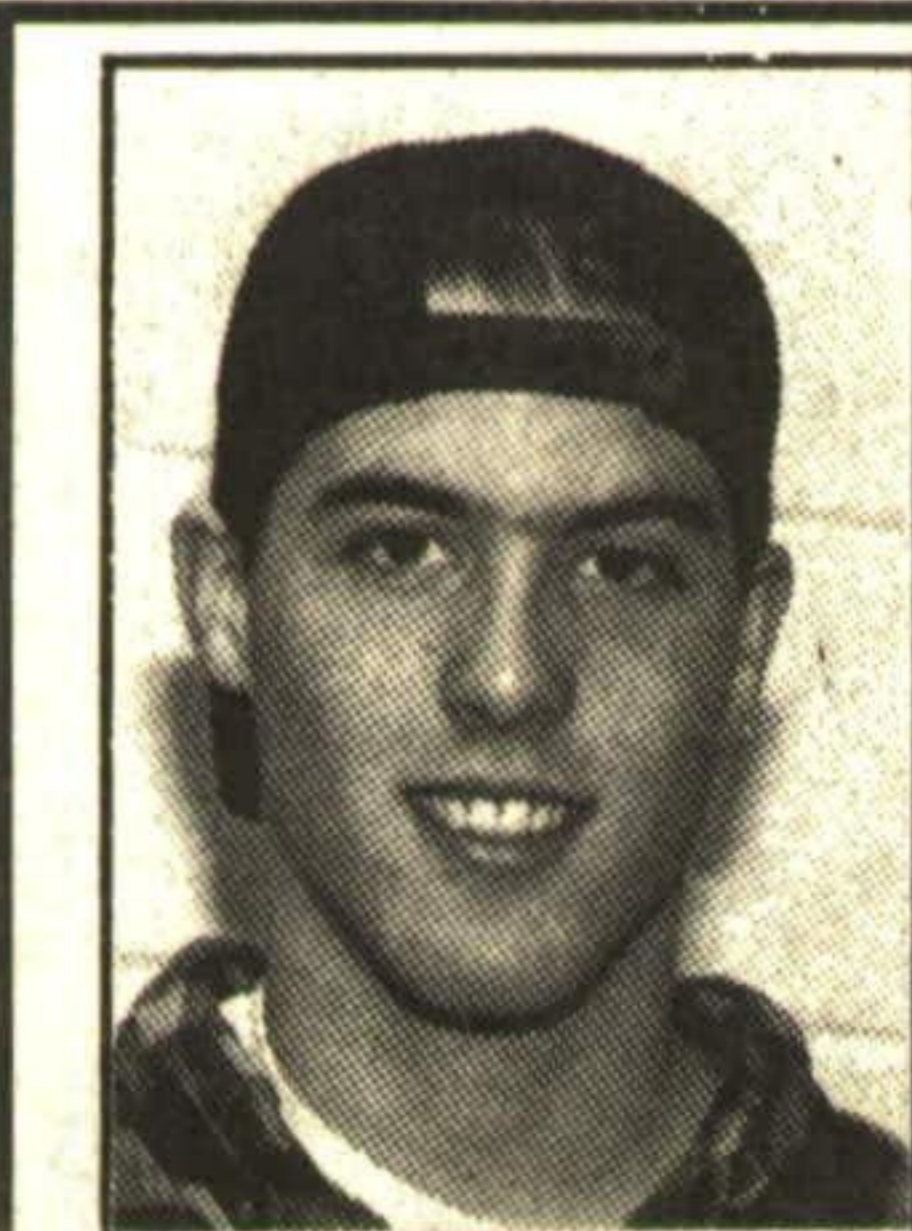

Still seeking coaches

The Acton Sabres (OMHA) Minor Hockey is still in the process of deciding on coaches for the 1996-97 hockey season.

There is still time for anyone interested in taking a team to submit an application. Call Steve Prentice at 853-3639 for details.

DERRICK
MCINTYRE

ADAM DAPONTE

JANETTE JENSEN

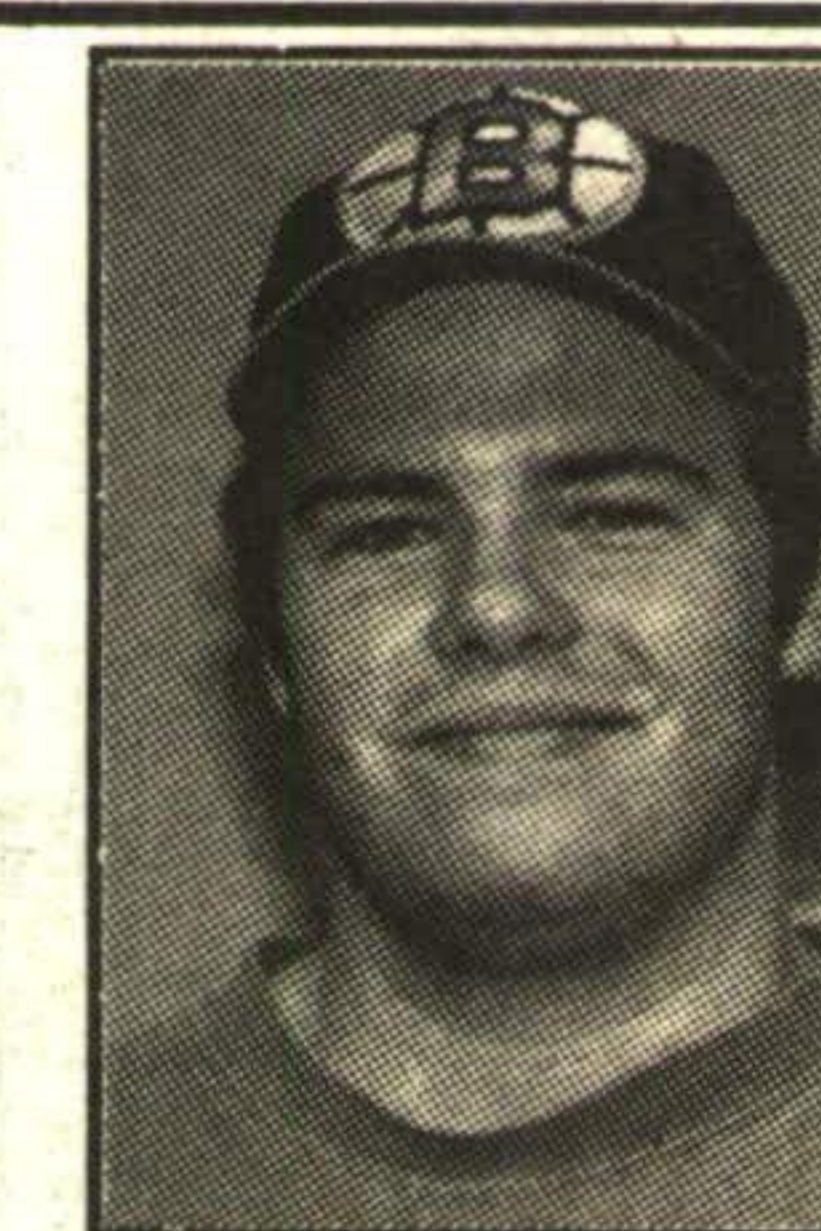

Athletes of the Week

The Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Adam DaPonte and Janette Jensen. Adam was selected for scoring two goals on the junior Redmen soccer team. Janette, goalie for the junior Redmen girls soccer was chosen for her outstanding performance.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Danielle Cary and Brad Densmore. Danielle, turned in a solid effort at the half back position on the senior Rebels girls soccer team. Brad, a member of the junior Rebels rugby team was selected for his strong play.

DANIELLE CARY

BRAD DENSMORE