Halton police issue warning

In recent weeks, the Burlington division of the Halton Regional Police Service have received a number of calls from concerned homeowners concerning claims made by persons selling alarm systems.

The callers report that the salespeople say their product is endorsed by the Halton Regional Police Service and that the company and the service work "closely together."

Halton police, however, does not endorse any particular alarm system, product or alarm company. The purchase of any system should be treated like any other consumer product — comparison shopping, along with contacting the Better Business Bureau, suggests Halton police.

Police Blotter

Church break-in

Someone broke into Knox Presbyterian Church in Georgetown overnight Sunday by manipulating the lock, police said. A door to an office area was forced open and the cabinets inside were searched. The culprit left empty-handed, police report.

Stereo stolen

A $2,000 stereo and CD player were taken from a car parked on the Ninth Line between 1 a.m. and 6 a.m. on Monday, police said.

Windshield broken

The front windshield of a 1978 Chrysler parked on Armstrong Ave. between Friday and Tuesday was broken, resulting in about $200 damage.

Window broken

A kitchen window worth about $450 was broken at a Raylawn Cres. resident Monday afternoon. Someone threw a rock through the window, police said.

House hit

A 1989 Chevrolet driven by a 17-year-old Cambridge woman went off the road on a curve on Main St. near Hwy. 7 in Acton and struck a house last Friday evening. There were three passengers in the car and they were all taken to Georgetown Hospital where they were treated and released. The porch and foundation of the house were damaged in the accident and the car sustained severe damage.

Deer collision

A 1990 pickup truck sustained severe damage last Saturday at 9 p.m. on Trafalgar Rd. when a deer ran out into the road and was struck, police said.
