

Brookville winners

Brookville School placed first in the annual Battle of the Books at Milton Public Library recently. The team represented Milton in the Halton competitions on May 8. The team includes kneeling, Rebecca Parker, Kyle Strong, Tracey Stokes. Standing, John Kitching, Lynn Stokes, Christine Kitching, Lauren Strong, and parent leader Judy Kitching. Also on the team: Joanne Schenker and Rhonda Carriere.

Pineview scores well at Books Battle

Pineview Public School and Stewarttown Middle School represented Halton Hills Public Libraries at the Regional Battle of the Books held in Burlington on May 9 and Pineview received the highest score of all the junior schools in the semi-final round and went on to place a fantastic second in the final battle.

Canadian Martyrs School took the trophy home, but only by six points. Stewarttown played a tough semifinal round against Canadian Martyrs School, who in the final won first place.

Both Pineview Public School and Stewarttown Middle School are to be commended for their knowledge and their sportsmanship.

On April 20 the Acton Star Thru Square dancers were entertained by a mystery tour organized by John and Roberta Wrigglesworth. Included in the tour was full transportation, an appetizing dinner, plus unlimited square dancing at the St. Catherines Spring Flings. More than 300 energetic dancers attended this year. A super evening was enjoyed by all.

Thursday, May 2 the Star Thru Squares hosted a group of dancers from the Mono Grand Squares Dance Club. The Star Thru Squares had previously captured the club's Official Banner on April 1. The Mono Group was able to recover it on this return visit. A very enjoyable night was had by all.
