

Paterson leads Vipers

The Georgetown Vipers are still looking for their first win in the Brampton Tackle Football League — but they're getting closer.

The Vipers dropped two decision last week to fall tom 0-3 on the season but they have inched closer in each outing. This week the Vipers fell 27-12 to the Brampton Hornets and then dropped a 23-12 decision to the Brampton Hornets. The Vipers trailed 15-12 until a last play touchdown by the Stallions.

In the 23-12 defeat the Vipers got touchdowns from Matt Paterson and Brad Snow.

Against the Stallions, it was Paterson providing much of the offense. He scored both touchdowns and ran for 195 yards.

The Chiropractic & Sports Injuries Centre

211 Guelph St., Suite 4 of Georgetown

- Early AM, evening & weekend appts.
- Senior, Student & Child Rates
- Workers' Compensation & Private Insurance
- X-Ray Facilities On Premises

New Patients Always Welcome

(905) 877-9996

Dr. Robert Jones, Chiropractor

Did you ever wonder if mermaids really existed?

Well...Here's your chance to find out...Learn to scuba dive
Safe • Enjoyable • Scuba
Adventure through levels of progressive YMCA
Diver Training

• Courses starting soon in Georgetown

Call Andy collect at (905) 859-4389
(Limited Space) After 4 pm

Walinga's five goal effort helps Apple take bite out of MacKenzie & Chapman

Matt Walinga's five-goal, six-point effort paced Apple Auto Glass as it edged MacKenzie & Chapman 7-6 in Halton Hills bantam lacrosse play last weekend.

Taylor Hall had a goal and an assist while Kyle Hall had the other Apple goal. Simon Saulnier had three assists and John McGuire had a pair. Peter Veltman led the MacKenzie attack with four goals and an assist. Alex Durham and Jamie Reynolds each had a goal and an assist. Pat Potosky set up three goals and Bill Campbell also had an assist.

The Legion doubled George & Dragon 4-2 in the other bantam matchup. Nick Black had a goal and two assists while John Tummonds, Adam Tyler and Greg Bidwell scored for the Legion. Bidwell and Tyler had one assist each. Dave Gibbons and Branden Valente scored for George & Dragon with helpers going to Nate Cardon and Ryan Busby.

Both peewee games ended in draws as Fargo Transport tied Nurseland Farms 3-3 and Georgetown Toyota and Ken's Auto ended 7-7.

David Preston, Sean Kirk and Dan Cammick scored for Fargo, with Brady Malchin picking up the only assist. Mike McDonald netted a pair for Nurseland and Steve Atkinson had the other goal. Matt Murchison and Cody Menken picked up assists.

Nick Mastro had a hat trick for Toyota while Dan Walinga had two goals and two assists. Brent Beaumont, who had three points on the day, and Jon Newby also scored for Toyota. Byron Jacome set up two goals while Adrian Chabassol and David Lyons had one assist each. Matt Wolfer and Matt Hilts each scored twice for Ken's Auto. Tomas Stokes had a goal to go with his two assists and Adam Lindsay and Joel MacDonald also scored. MacDonald and Derek Naylor each set up one goal.

Travis Bland had four goals and an assist to lead J.V. Clothing to a 10-6 win over the Georgetown Lions Club novice action. Steve Terry was also a big contributor with four points, including a pair of goals. Matt Lyons and Jason Maclellan each netted a pair of goals to round out the scoring. Greg Black had two assists and singles went to Lyons and Jordan Jacobs.

The Kinsmen Club edged Coalyard Patty's 6-5 on the strength of Tim Walinga's second straight hat trick. Mike Adcock had two goals while Chad Artem had one and set up another. Daine Kuiken-Rogers had a pair of helpers. Andrew Friolet and Kyle MacDonald had two goals apiece for Coalyard Patty's and Scott Hall-Reid had the other marker. Matt Velten, Ryan Torres and Justin Noble each had a helper.

Arnold's Greenhouse squeaked by Georgetown Chrysler 6-5 in tyke play. Chris Darling scored three times, Alex Bulgarelli had a pair of goals and Greg Henry had one. Single assists went to Ian Buist, Chris Richards, Michael Krashay and Cameron Noble. Mitchell Thompson had the hat trick for Chrysler while Braden Artem and Alex Paterson also scored. Corey Syvret, Jordan Kemp and Jordan Thompson chipped in with an assist each.

Justin Gibson tallied five times and set up another as Georgetown Optimists downed Galvcast 8-2. Matt Lyons, Micheal Clost and Robert Fuller also scored for the Optimists. Clost, Fuller, Blake-Seatons, Brett Maltby and Matt Laidlaw each set up a goal. Kevin DeForest and Kyle Westwood had the Galvcast markers and Brett Reynolds had the lone assist.

McGourty & Sons continued its strong defensive play, chalking up its second consecutive shutout in the peanut division by blanking J. Henderson Proshop 4-0. Ryan Haines had two goals with singles going to Adam McGourty and Cody McCulloch.

Sargent Landscaping defeated Toronto Truck 7-2 in the other peanut game. Sargent spread out the scoring with Curtis Marcoux netting two and Sean Terry, Elias Frechette, Liam Heelis, Evan Lavallee and William Poirier each scoring once. Cam Maltby and Justin Reid had the Toronto Truck goals with assists going to A.J. Bettgridge and Conner McMahon.

Powderpuffers begin 25th season

The Puckerings added plenty of punch, leading Green Beer-Ehs to victory as the Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League opened up its 25th season.

Patti Puckering and Jean Puckering each had three hits, including a double in Green Beer Ehs 14-7 win over Terra Cotta. Jeannine Davis also chipped in with a double, a single and a walk. While Debbie Tatham and Stacey Hamilton had a pair of singles and a stolen base each. Lou Ann Woods and rookie Catherine Seabrook each had triples for Terra Cotta while nancy Andrews had a double.

Hanging With The Hogs hung in for a 9-7 victory over Grape Escape. Sandy Weeks delivered a big double for the Hogs.

All Sorts shot down Gray 17-7. Cathy Dawson helped out offensively and defensively, hitting a double and teaming up with Donna Dehaas on the mound. Wendy Reed was also solid defensively, playing first and third base.

We'll Drink To That celebrated a 15-9 win over the Red Hot Chilly Peppers. Dawn Hilts, Laura Legere and Linda McClure had doubles for the winning side. Tammy Waters scored twice for the Chilly Peppers while Bonnie Malenfant, Cindy Kavanagh, Karen Smith, Jo-Anne Payton, Susan Couligan, Paula Zilio and Julie Hilts scored once.

Denim spoiled the night for the Spoilers, handing them a 16-5 loss. Denim's Rose Harris wasted little time getting her season underway, smacking a home run in her first trip to the plate. Colleen Costello and Annette Van Dyke had triples and Diane Moore had a double. Scoring for the Spoilers were Goldie Cash, Cindy Bodrug, Kim Vienneau, Karen Appleyard and Linda Dutkowski. Gail Campbell had a double for the Spoilers.

Aqua won its opener 9-6 over the Law. Tammy Lockwood doubled for Aqua.

Marcy Williamson turned in an outstanding effort as she homered, scored twice and drove in six runs in Out Of The Blue's 18-4 victory over Navy. Sue Wilson was 2-for-3, scored twice and had three RBI. Also scoring twice each were Robin Maltby, Jeanne Sarra and Cindy See. Tara Bouskill had three hits, including a pair of doubles, and played a strong game behind the plate for Navy. Joyce Hawkins had a double and a single.

Hanging With The Hogs was involved in another close game as week two opened. It settled for a 14-14 tie with Gray. Barb Cameron, Sharon Stigger and Helen Nelson doubled for the Hogs.

The Red Hot Chilly Peppers picked up their first win by downing Terra Cotta. Cindy Kavanagh pitched well and contributed offensively with a double and three RBI. Michelle Shannon tripled and drove in a pair of runs. Sue Coulighan also had a pair of RBI and a double. Tammy Waters and Bonnie Malenfant each doubled and Waters, Michelle Hilts and Brenda Snow each drove in a run. Terra Cotta's Tracey Morey homered and drove in three runs. Not to be outdone, her mom Pat Morey went 3-for-3, including a double. Also going 3-for-3 was Hesp Manon while Nancy Andrews tripled.

Denim picked up their second straight win, taking a close 18-15 decision over All Sorts. Sandy Bridges and Colleen Cadger led a strong hitting attack with doubles. Bridges and Annette Van Dyke handled the pitching duties. Cathy Dawson homered for All Sorts and Sharon Orton doubled. Catchers Laurie Henson and Jaime Connolly provided solid support for the pitchers.

Aqua also improved to 2-0 with a 22-16 win over We'll Drink To That. Tammy Lockwood tripled and doubled to lead the offence. Elaine Moreland had a triple while Janet Hern, Calee Jones and Sarah Campbell doubled. Campbell also had a strong night on the mound. Marie Saunders had a double and a triple for We'll Drink To That. Tracey Tate and Linda McClure each had a pair of doubles and Laura Legere had one.

Grape Escape blasted the Law 19-7. Michelle Conroy and Mary Anne Lapointe provided great pitching for the Escape. Carol Dean homered in a losing cause.

It was a big offensive night as Out Of The Blue defeated the Spoilers. Lauri Crozier led the attack with a 4-for-4 night, two runs and an RBI. Julie Didone scored three times and drove in a pair while Laura Pydych had four RBI and scored a run. Jeanne Sarra scored drove in three runs and Jo-Anne Emmerson had a pair of RBI and scored once. Cindy Bodrug and Gail Campbell doubled for the Spoilers.

Seal's Carol Spiteri turned in an awesome pitching performance, striking out 10 as Seal's downed Green Beer Ehs 6-2. Sue Subject homered and doubled, Joanne Gravelle had a pair of doubles and Tara Bouskill had one. Chris Stoyles stole several bases and picked up a pair of strikeouts to help close out the victory for her team. Jeannie Brooks, Karen Tales, Debbie Tatham and Jean Puckering had singles for the Ehs.

WANTED ADULT BALL HOCKEY PLAYERS

For Pick up Ball Hockey Games every Thursday Night

Contact Rob at 873-1902

AIR CONDITIONING SALE FROM AS LOW AS $26⁶² /MTH. O.A.C.

Including 5 yrs. Parts & Labour

OR

Ask about our Extended 10 yr. Parts & Labour Warranty CALL

C.G.S. Heating & Air Conditioning 1-800-958-9979

