The Upholstery Shop . . . Cover Your Windows

The Upholstery Shop and Cover Your Windows provides shoppers with two valuable services under one roof.

Krys Pawlak of Cover Your Windows and Wayne Noseworthy of The Upholstery Shop both have several years of experience in the decorating field.

Wayne, who has lived in Georgetown for 30 years, has operated his upholstery business for more than 20 years, and Krys, an area resident for 13 years, has operated her window covering business for eight.

The two recently decided to pool their talents to allow their

Both Krys and Wayne enjoy their work, and serving their clients in the area. "We find it very fulfilling and rewarding," said Krys.

Just Between Kids

Anyone in the market for quality, used children's clothing in excellent condition should visit Just Between Kids in Brampton.

The store, located in the Mandarin Restaurant Plaza, is owned by Linda and Joe Biase. The couple opened the business eight months ago.

Linda said she enjoys her work in the store because she likes dealing with the public and "loves kids."

The store caters to kids of all ages. Along with clothes the store also carries equipment, furniture and toys.

"You can come to our store and find what you want," said Linda. "We sell only things that are clean and in excellent condition."

"Kids Resale Shop"

Linda said she decided to open the store because she used to buy her children's clothes at various places including Goodwill and Salvation Army.

"I always had to dig through clothes. I wished there was a place I could just go and find what I wanted." She said Just Between Kids is exactly that kind of store.

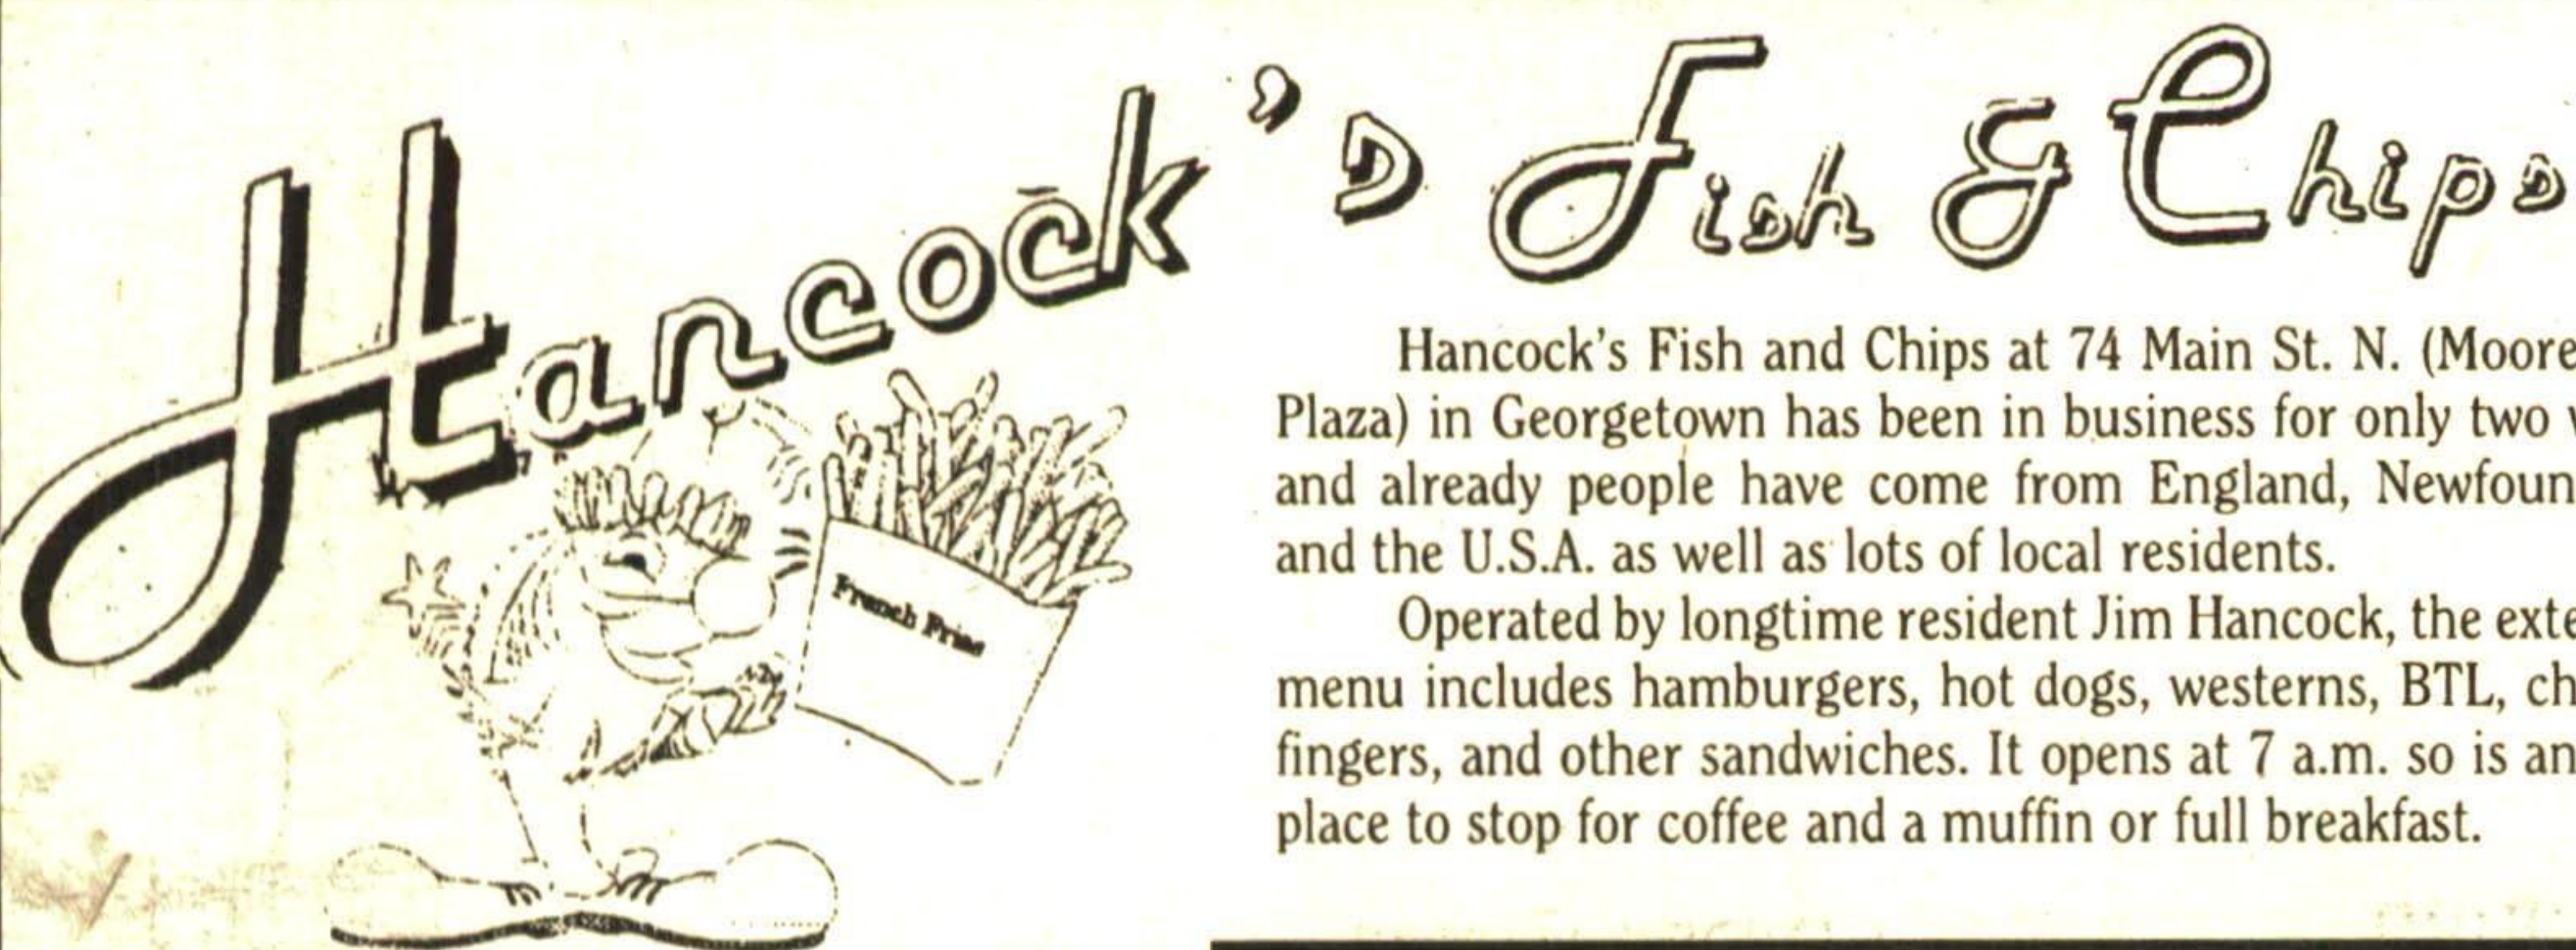

"I think the resale of kids' stuff not only saves young couples' money, but it helps the environment by recycling the products."

Hancock's Fish and Chips at 74 Main St. N. (Moore Park Plaza) in Georgetown has been in business for only two weeks and already people have come from England, Newfoundland and the U.S.A. as well as lots of local residents.

Operated by longtime resident Jim Hancock, the extensive menu includes hamburgers, hot dogs, westerns, BTL, chicken fingers, and other sandwiches. It opens at 7 a.m. so is an ideal place to stop for coffee and a muffin or full breakfast.

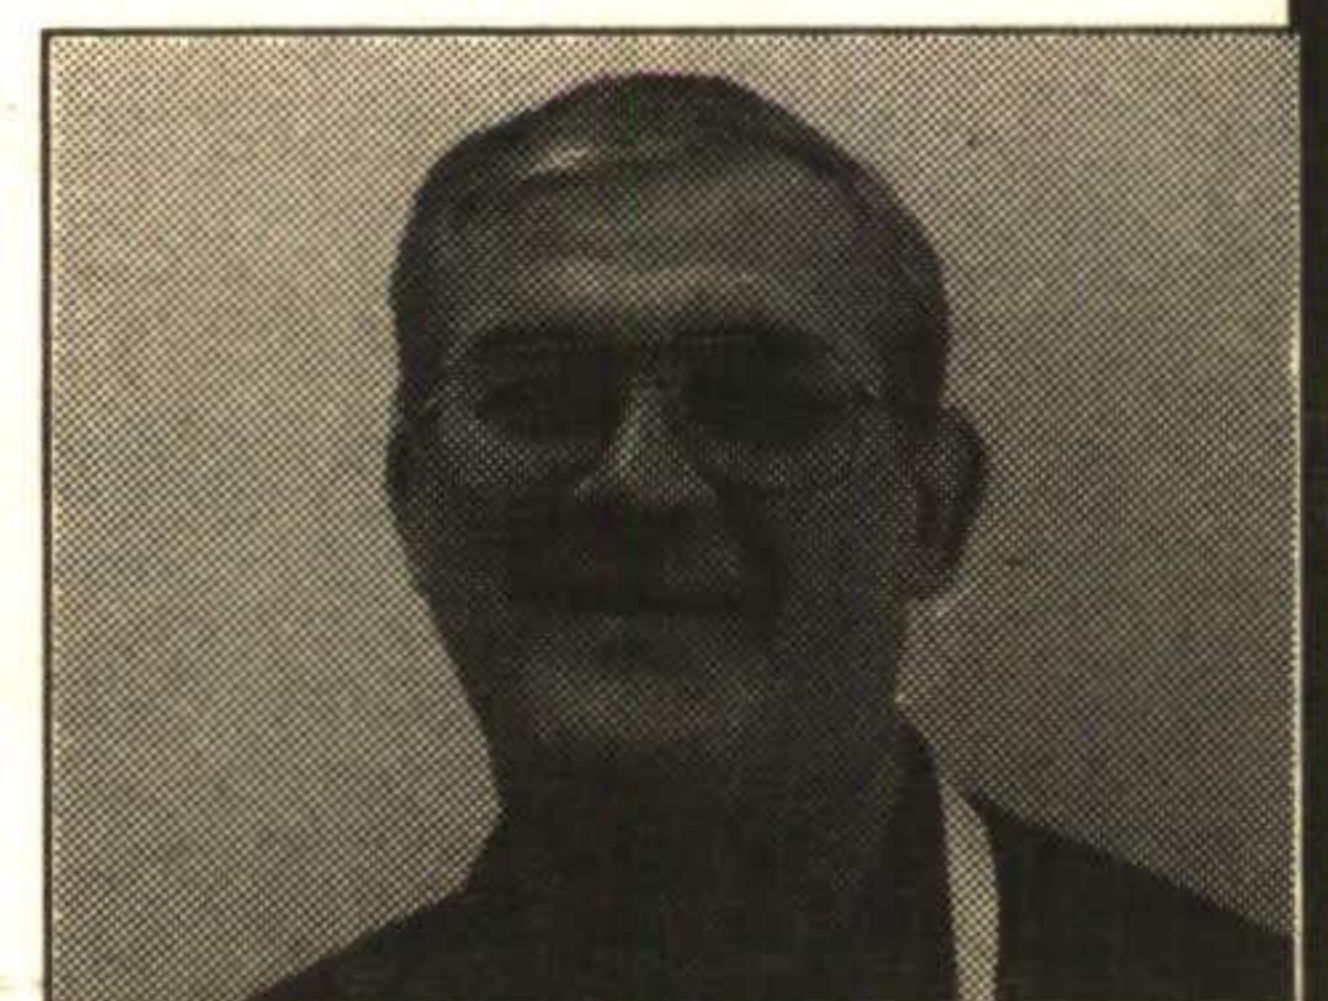

Jim's background has been in management at Canadian Tire Corporation and Northern Telecom, but cooking has always been what he has done to relax.

He says he loves to meet new people and really enjoys talking to Georgetown residents about past and common friends. The cooking and kitchen area is open so patrons can see the cleanliness of the restaurant and all the food is prepared fresh daily. The menu will be expanded to include dieter's specials.

The restaurant is open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday to Wednesday, Thursday 7 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., Friday 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. It is closed on Sundays.
