

Award winners from the 756 Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets assembled following their presentation. Winner included (front, from left) Sgt. Tyler Boulet (Interflight, Best Dressed Cadet,) WO2 Spencer Selhi (Air Cadet of the Year, Leadership,) LAC Chris Haslock (Best Drill Team Member,) and Sgt. Seth Moffat (Initiative and Enthusiasm.) In back, LAC

Rachael Miller (Best First Year Cadet,) LAC Kevin Wood (Most Congenial Cadet,) LAC Chris Thomson (Athletic Award,) Cpl Jeremy Bell (Best Junior NCO, Royal Canadian Legion Medal of Excellence,) LAC Courtney Bell (Marksmanship) and LAC Andrew Haslock (Most Improved Band Member.)

TED BROWN Independent/Free Press

YORK
Heating and Air Conditioning

AIR CONDITIONING SALE
FROM AS LOW AS
$26<sup>62</sup> /MTH. O.A.C.
Including 5 yrs. Parts & Labour
OR
Ask about our
Extended 10 yr. Parts & Labour Warranty
CALL
C.G.S. Heating & Air Conditioning
1-800-958-9979

Our Readers Write

Apathy is a concern

Dear editor:

On May 11, Julian Reed held another one of his town hall meetings; with great amazement there were only 11 people in attendance, throughout the two-and-a-half hours of comics.

I am appalled to note that apathy is running deep within our community, and throughout the riding, or is it my misinterpretation that there is no desire, will, or general interest for politics within the riding, further the lack of common interest for the well being of our beautiful country.

I do not believe that I am far off the mark, although just maybe I am wrong, maybe it is my misinterpretation that the general public assumes the federal Liberal party is just accomplishing the utmost and are acting within the desire of most Canadians.

I do not believe this is the case. I believe that apathy is deeply embedded within the local community and throughout the riding.

What was Mr. Reed's reason for voting in favor of this Bill C-33? The reasoning for Mr. Reed to vote in favor of this particular bill was due to his personal conscience and moral views.

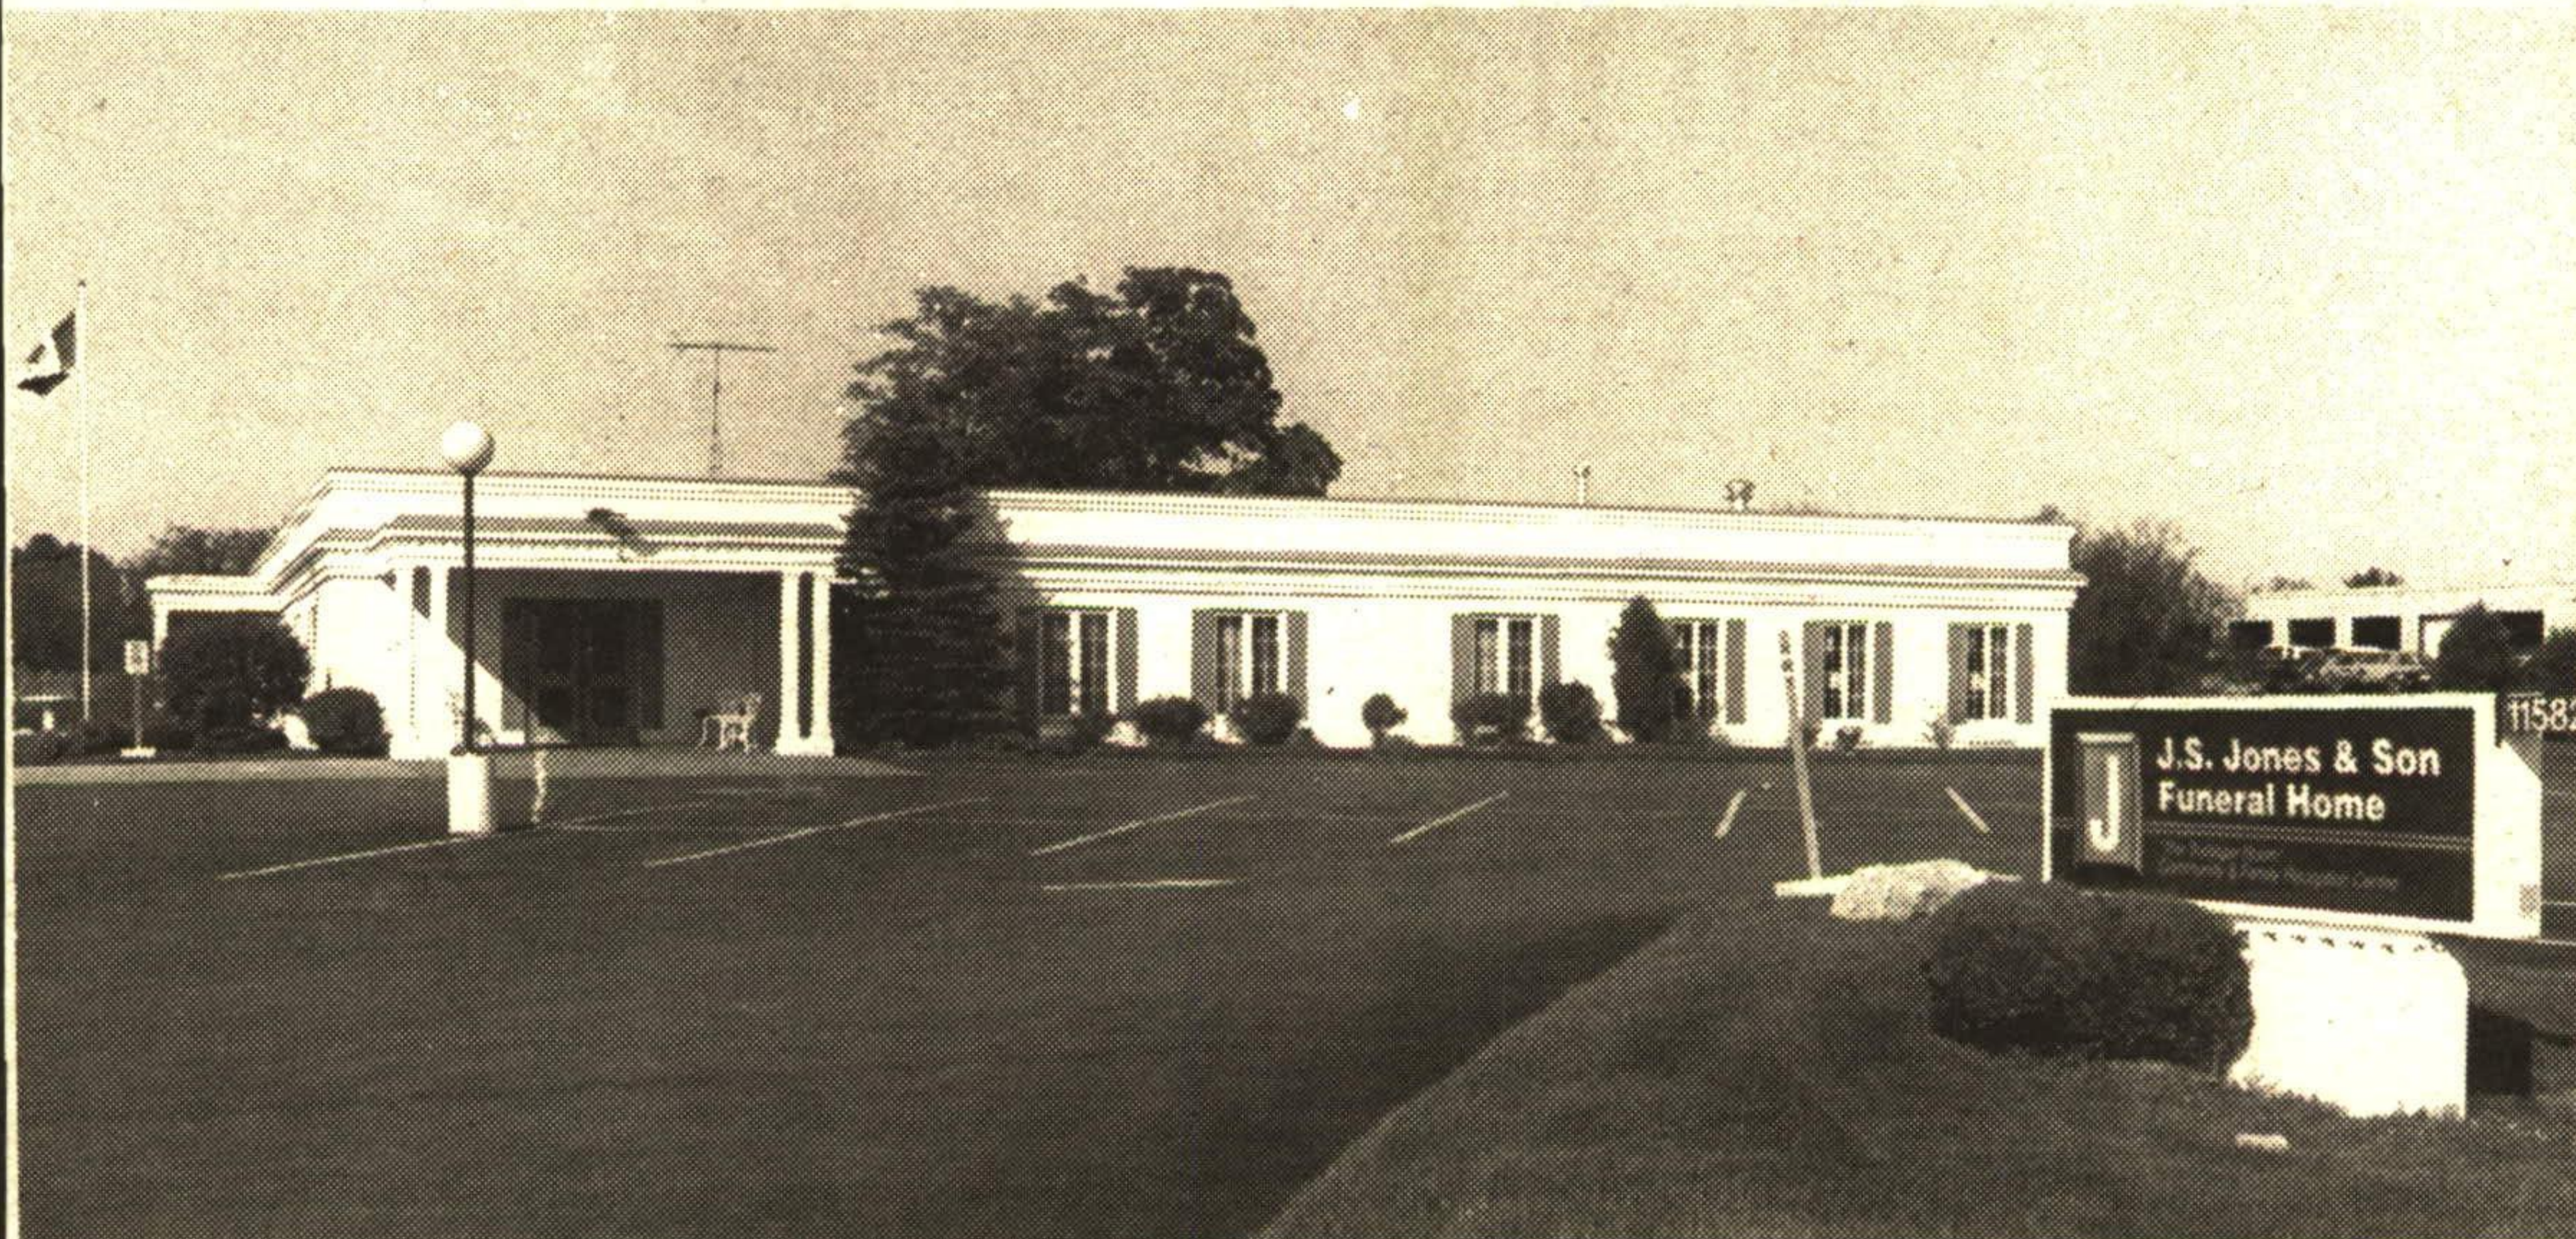

When Mr. Reed was asked why he did not consult the constituents of this riding, before voting on Bill C-33, Mr. Reed stated he was elected to make the decisions for the constituents of the riding, further when asked if he would vote against the party whip he said most of his decisions made on his behalf are from moral or conscience views.

Now I will make my point: if individuals within this community, and across the country, allow government officials to do as they see fit, and not consult we the people of this country or community which elected this official and pays their wages, we the public of the community and those within this country are going to be the losers of what our great grandfathers and grandfathers fought for, and the loss of a great, wonderful and beautiful country.

I would ask all Canadians to become involved in the political process, to demonstrate their desire to establish a newer and improved vision of Canada.

Albert E. Powell

J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home Limited

10TH YEAR ANNIVERSARY OVER 50 YEARS OF SERVICE

We at the J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home are celebrating our 10th Anniversary this June 1996. Starting in Georgetown in the 1940's at the "old" location, 34 Edith Street; the decision to move to 11582 Trafalgar Road was made in the early 80's, with construction starting in 1985. More changes were made to the new facility in 1994 with the addition of the Trafalgar Room Community and Family Reception Centre. Through the many years, we at J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home have had the privilege of serving the communities of Georgetown, Acton and surrounding areas. We have strived to be helpful, sympathetic, fair and personal. We are proud to say that we are, and remain, the only PRIVATELY OWNED, FAMILY OPERATED, INDEPENDENT FUNERAL HOME in Halton Hills. Thank you for your support over the years and we pledge our service to you and your families.

Jim and Noreen Jones
Rob Blackburn
Patrick McDonough
Winston Robinson

Phil and Marg Jones
Toby Chisholm
Kasey Iredale
Glenda Benton