Picture perfect

Top left: It was a perfect afternoon when students at McKenzie-Smith Bennett School in Acton skipped to raise money for the Jump Rope for Heart. While fun was the first order of the afternoon, the school raised $570 and once had 19 students all skipping under the same rope.

Top right: At the annual meeting May 28 in Acton, Halton Hills Red Cross recognized those blood donors who had reached significant milestones donating their blood. Barry Grummett (right) was honored for giving blood 100 times, while Dianne Anderson (left) was recognized for her 75th donation by Barbara Vivash, Red Cross Area Clinic coordinator for Toronto and Central Ontario.

Right: Brian Wickham (centre), with his son Micheal, was the winner of Knechtel's Supermarket Clue Game. Presenting the prize of $1,000 in groceries is Knechtel's store manager Bob Galbraith. Wickham donated $100 to the food bank.

BACK PAIN WORKSHOP
with Dr. Gabor Madarasz

- Learn how YOU can eliminate the most common cause of low back pain.
- See why this revolutionary program has proven effective even when other therapies have failed.
- Learn 4 key rules that will help your muscle development skyrocket.
- With this step by step masterplan, it's possible for YOU to take control of your back problems once and for all.

You should consider attending the BACK POWER WORKSHOP if:

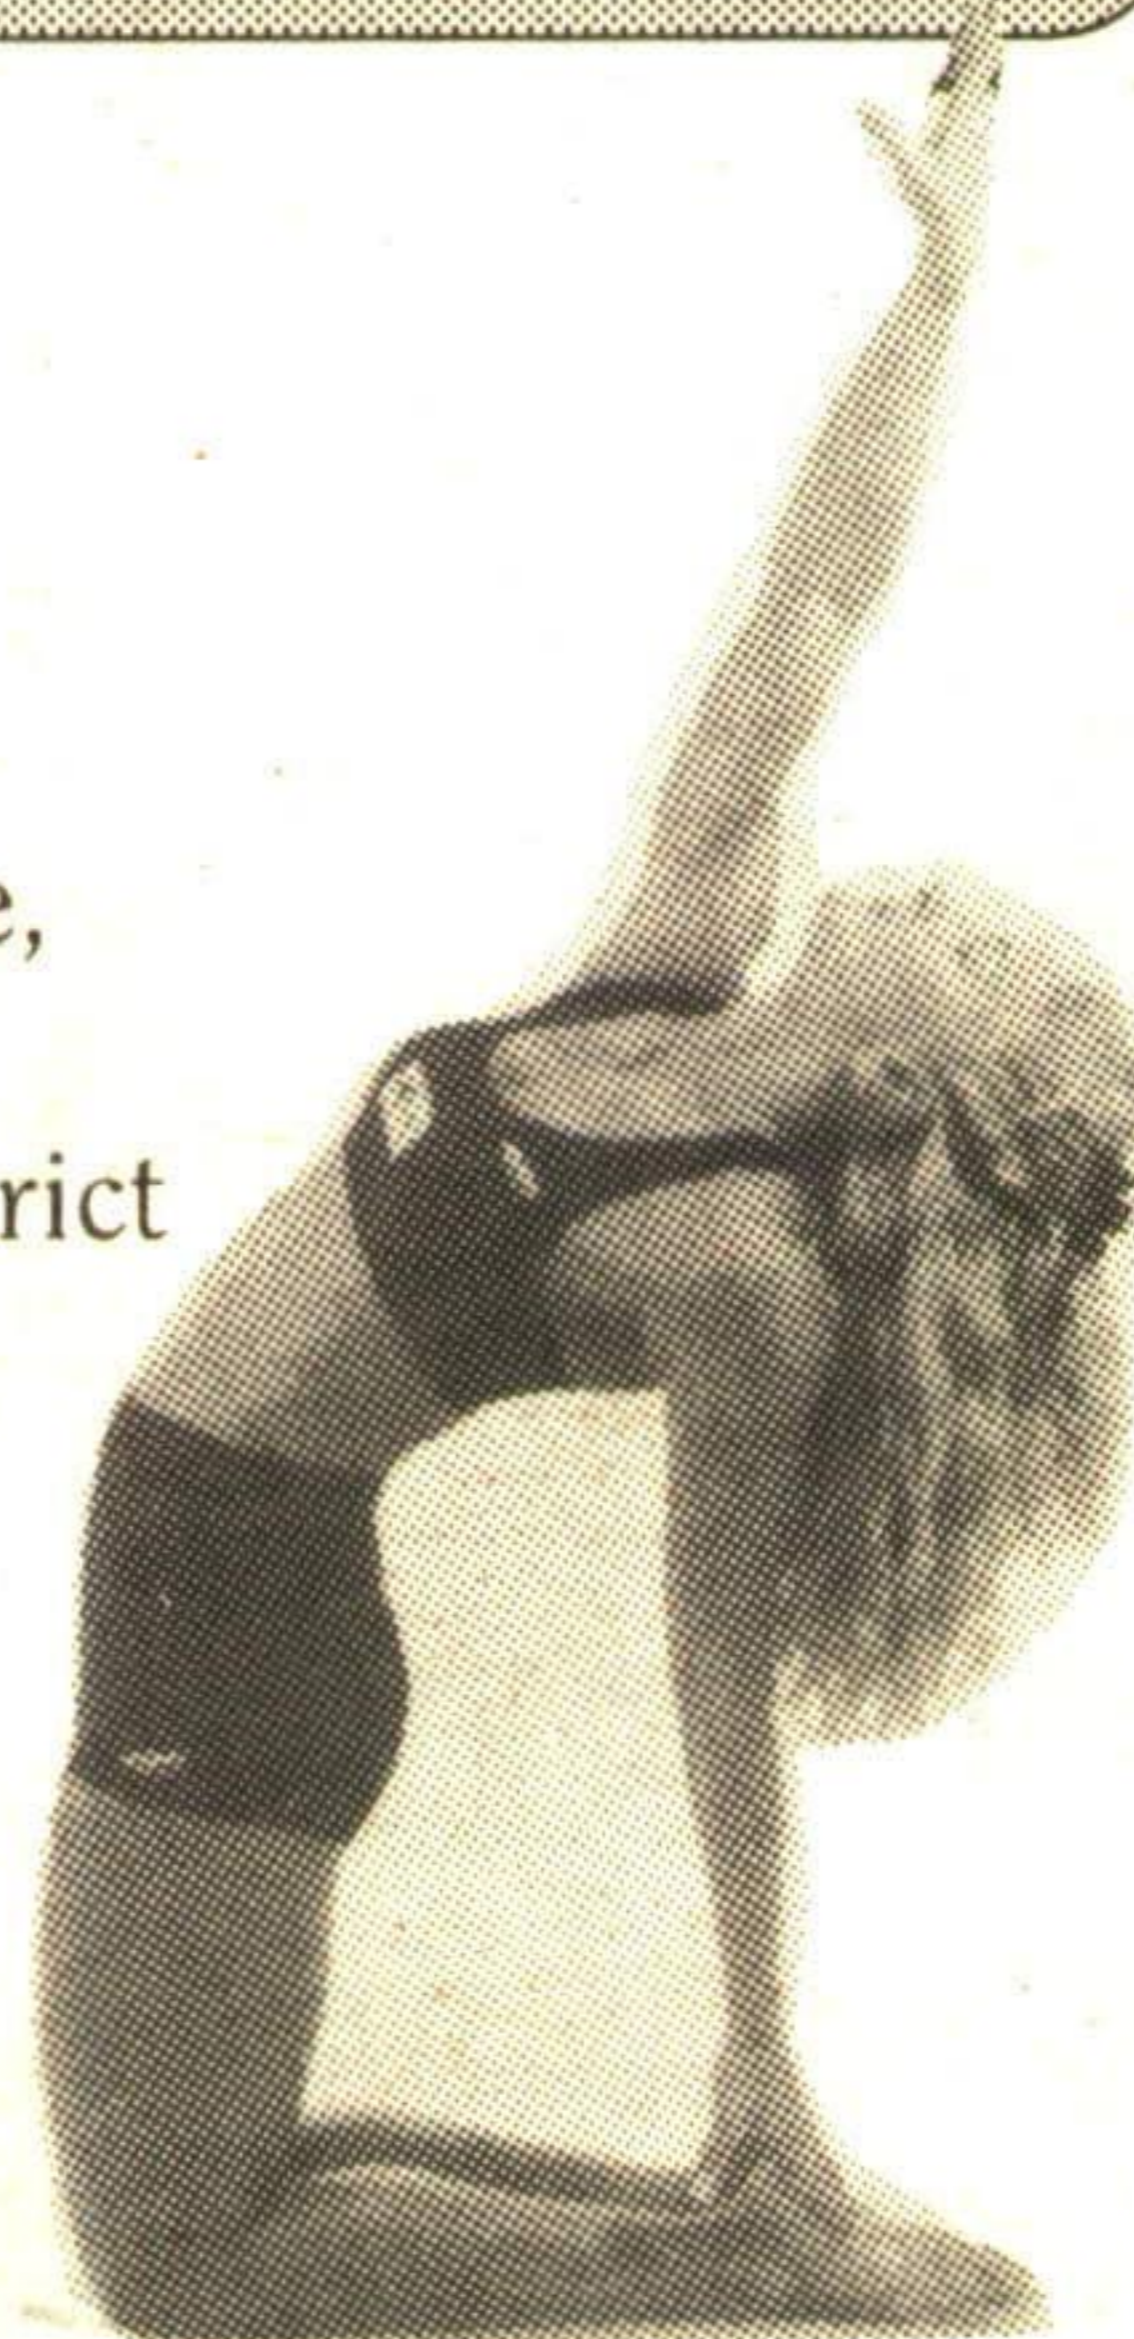

- your pain does not travel below the knees
- pain worse when getting up in the morning, then better after half an hour
- pain worse during prolonged bending as in gardening, vacuuming, sitting . . .
- pain worse when inactive and better when on the move
- several episodes of back pain over the past months to years
