Grease cast to make donation to child abuse prevention

The Institute for the Prevention of Child Abuse (IPCA) will be the recipient of a sizable donation being made by the cast of Georgetown Globe Production's Grease.

Inspired by a private donation by Choreographer Evelyn Webster, the cast voted unanimously to add their cast party funds to the kitty. Once all the funds are collected, IPCA will receive over $600.

IPCA's mandate is to prevent all forms of child abuse. They accomplish this task through their Training, Public Education, Professional Services and Research programs.

"We hope the idea carries over and that this will become part of every Globe show, maybe with a different charity being named each time," Director David Ambrose said.

Grease takes to the stage at the John Elliot Theatre August 5 to 8.

Travis Toth of Acton got to meet Darryl Sittler at the Blue Springs Golf Course this week. Sittler was in town for the Todd Brooker/Darryl Sittler Sports Celebrities Festival Golf Classic in aid of the Special Olympics.
