

The roof at the Halton Hills Ambulance base was beefed up this week. Workers started work on the former fire hall roof between rain showers this week. The work was expected to take a week.

Man falls on head from Rattlesnake Point

A 45-year-old man visiting this area from England suffered head injuries after falling approximately 50' (15 m) while rock climbing at Rattlesnake Point Conservation Area Tuesday.

At about 12:30 p.m., the man landed on his head after falling from the rock face. He was taken to Milton District Hospital and later transferred by air ambulance to Hamilton General Hospital. His injuries are considered serious, a police media release revealed.
