

Pirates down Padres in pee wee action

With only three weeks of scheduled games and several rainout makeup matches to complete, the six Georgetown Baseball Association House League pee wee teams are making their final pitch for positions at the annual Day of Champions on Aug. 29

MVP Distributing Pirates 10 TD Bank Padres 4

The Padres challenged the league-leading Pirates for three innings. Jeff Meinen motivated the Pirates, who were shorthanded for this match, with three fly-ball catches and two runs-batted in. Ryan Aubin was cited for an outstanding catch from Meinen for a critical out. The Pirates were able to dominate with quality pitching from Stephen Orticello and Gary Norman, who counted three-up, three-down outings in the first and fourth innings respectively. Norman claimed three strikeouts with 14 pitches. Chris Meyers sparked the Pirates' offence with a double while Matt McCarthy tallied a pair of runs-batted in.

GW Woodworking Blue Jays 11 George and Dragon Angels 4

The Jays salvaged this win from a potential defaulted game because of an insufficient number of players minutes before the game started. Shane Dubyk's timely arrival but untimely back injury suggested discomfort would make it difficult to play. Sensing his teammates' concerns for a possible default, Dubyk, fortunately for the Jays, joined the game. He counted for a double and a run-batted in and made a spectacular defensive catch. Paul Farmer belted out a double and triple and was credited with four runs-batted in. Farmer contributed defensively with steady pitching, as did Kirk Crane. Jeff Hohendorf assisted the Jays offensively with three base hits. Offensive results for the Angels weren't available as the club didn't provide GBA officials with a results sheet.

Jim and Pat Akers Realty Phillies 14 Kinsmen Expos 1

Phillies' pitchers had an outstanding outing. Coach Victor Estevan commented that his hurlers "shut down the normally-potent Expos' attack; this team beat us the last time out." Matt Alexa performed an outstanding leap of faith into the air from his shortstop position to snag an Expos' liner. Thomas Collicott cracked a triple. Doubles for the Phillies were registered by Jason Estevan, Brendan Alexa, Fraser Hewitt and Matt Alexa. Expos' catcher Topher Baker shut down the Phillies' offensive thrust in the first inning with a third-out generating throw-down to third base to catch a runner off guard. Other outstanding defensive performances by the Expos included a pop-fly catch by Iain Murphy, followed by another pop-fly catch from Nick Johnston end the third inning. Chris Hall repeated this defensive strategy by snagging another pop-up in the fourth. Mike Budgell, Mike Rome and Andrew Terrell were credited with good defensive play from the Expos.

TD Bank Padres 12

GW Woodworking Blue Jays 11

An exciting, evenly-matched encounter between these two teams gave the Padres a much-needed win over the Jays, who had won their previous outing of the week. The Jays' offensive strength came from Teddy Simmons, who batted a double, Brad Densmore drove in a pair of runs while David Pegg was given credit for a single run-batted in. Jeff Hohendorf and Teddy Simmons ignited the Jays defensively with good throws and fine catches for timely outs. The Padres displayed excellence defensively. The battery of Mike McEnemy behind the plate and Robert Larose on the mound tallied three strikeouts and contributed to a 1-to-3 combination infield groundout. Erich Behling sparked the Padres offensively by earning two runs-batted in. Trevor McBain celebrated his birthday in style by crossing the plate in the final inning to count the winning run, thereby spreading the icing on the Padres' cake.
