

Arnies grid team beats flat Burns

By Leanne Fournier

Burns Transport continued to come out with a flat performance as Arnies Body Shop defeated them 13-0 in Georgetown Ladies Flag Football action Sunday. JV Jets also defeated QES by the same score and CIBC had little trouble with O'Tooles as they beat them 29-7.

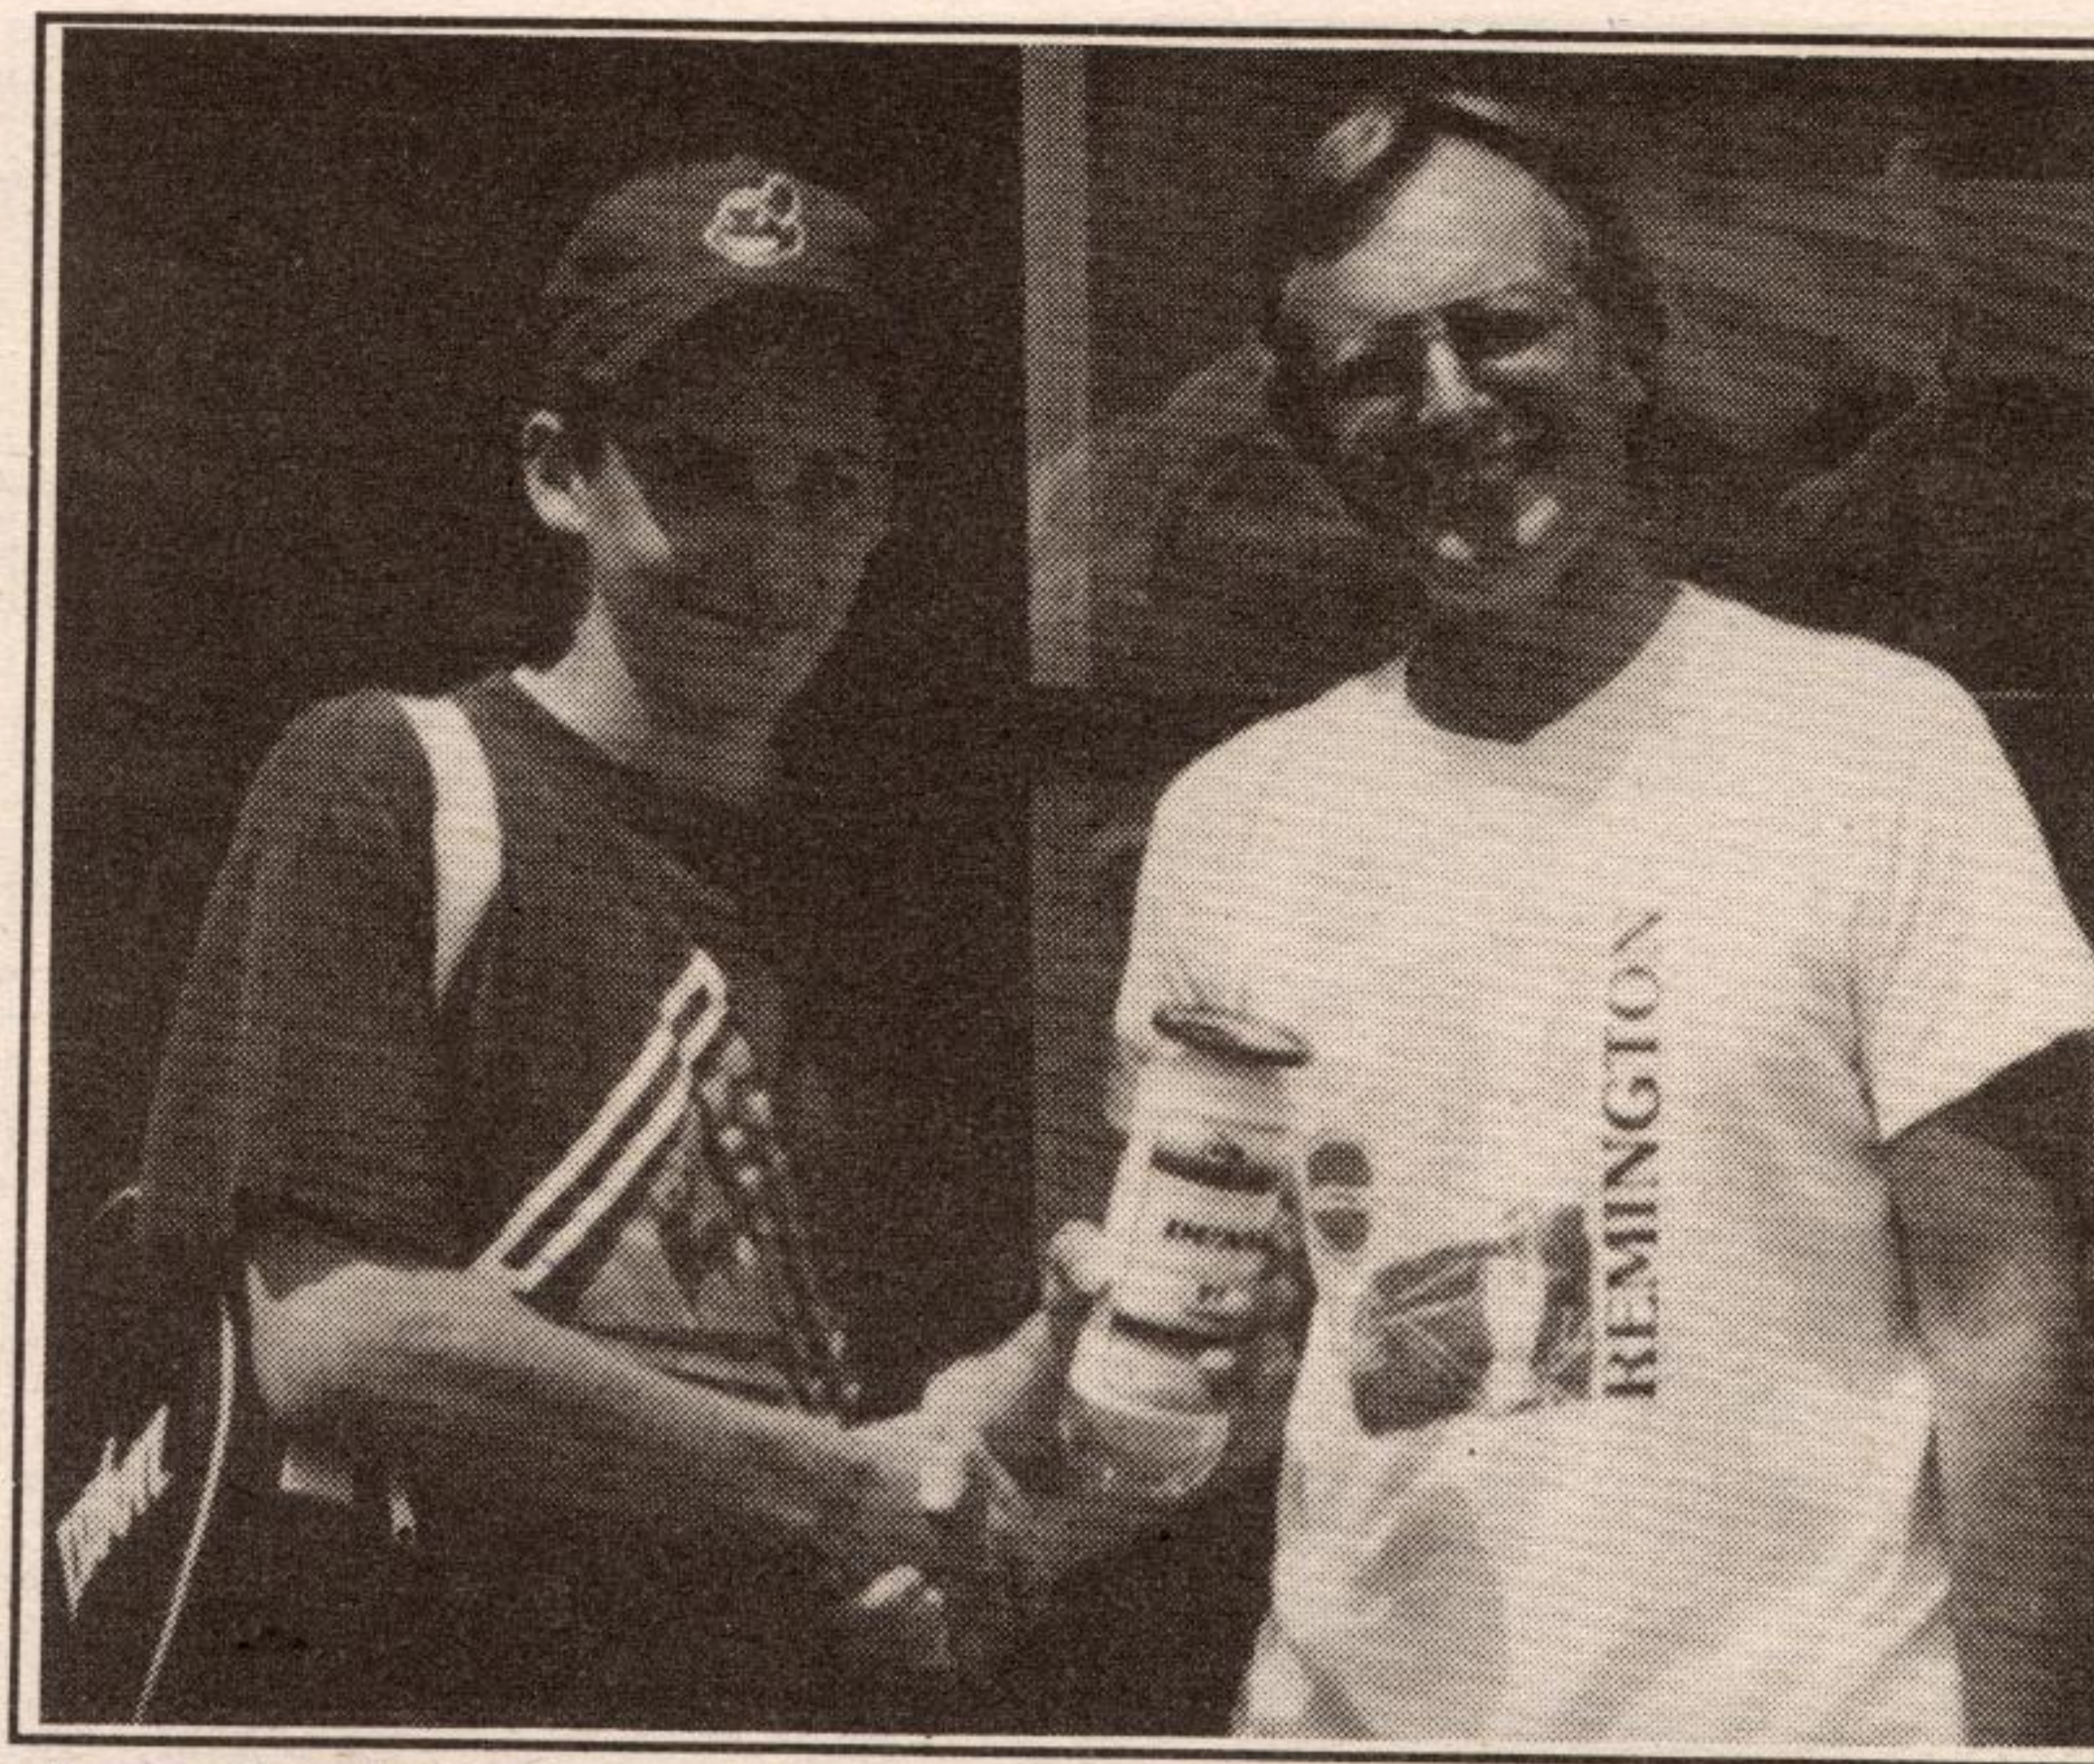

A few tough breaks and a lack of offence cause the Burns meltdown in spite of a superior defensive effort. Sue Ferguson started things off for Arnies with an interception and touchdown. Kyra Kristensen Irvine halted another Arnies drive with a fine interception. Midway through the third, Carol Kovacevic regain sole possession of the interception by hauling in another errant pass. The Burns defence continued to halt Arnies offence with the help of a great Brenda Hamilton interception. With the clock winding down, Arnies attempted a fourth down pass at the Burns five-yard line. An unfortunate Burns penalty gave Arnies another shot and this time Pat Brown made sure with a touchdown grab, with Caroline McMillan booting the convert.

The last contest surprised many. JV Jets of late have turned in two fine performances on offence and defence. On this day, however, the offence appeared lacklustre as Lisa Allen watched pass after pass pop out of her receivers' hands. Ineke Booth pulled in an Allen touchdown toss, with Rosemary Gale Wysocki adding the convert. With three plays left in the game and JV ahead by six, the winners made a potentially fatal move. QES player Colleen Weaver intercepted a pass, giving her team one last play. But Wysocki intercepted and returned a Tammy McLoughlin pass 80 yards for the touchdown.

The first game of the day saw a struggling O'Tooles team cheer for every first down it obtained. Brenda Ryan had an interception and a late 80-yard kickoff return for O'Tooles's lone score. Coach Staulis and his purple-people eaters have a great warmup drill that has helped some in the receiving department. CIBC switched back and forth with two ailing quarterbacks. Colleen Price had two touchdowns while Marg Walinga and Dianne Tooze had single scores. Leanne Fournier had four points and Monica Mastalerz added another convert. Lisa Statham pulled in two interceptions while Tooze had one to halt the purple squad.

Pirates beat Angels

Orticello, Travis Dares, Chris Meyers and Jason VanMeijel, who added two runs-batted in apiece. VanMeijel displayed a quick response by nabbing a line-drive catch at first to end the inning. Catcher Matt McCarthy scrambled from behind the plate to count a pop-fly out for the Pirates.

Pirate plate power proved overwhelming for the Angels defence. Bill Dimitriou pounded a home run and tallied three runs-batted in during the game. Garry Norman and Brian Soloman smashed triples, with Soloman adding two runs-batted in. Defensive talents of the Pirates were demonstrated by Norman, Dimitriou and Jason VanMeijel, who made superb fly-ball catches for critical outs.

Andrew Beaven alertly gathered a third out in a bases-loaded situation by gunning the ball to third baseman Matt McCarthy. Travis Dares snagged a line-drive rocket behind the excellent pitching of Stephen Orticello, who retired the first six batters he faced. Dimitriou successfully closed the game and halted the Angels attempts to close the gap. Adam Scuralli cracked a double and drove in a run for the Angels offensively. Jesse DeForest also drove in a run. Excellent pitching by Chris Scully in the second and fourth innings helped stall the opposition's bats. Defensively for the Angels Mike Watts made strong putout throws from third base.

Pee wee players and parents can expect the 10 rainout games from July to made up between Aug. 20 and Aug. 28. A schedule will be announced soon.

The finalist in the junior girls consolation singles competition was Beth Cocker (left). For her efforts, Cocker received new tennis balls from tournament convenor John Dallison (right).
