

First authoritative history of Georgetown now available

The first authoritative history of Georgetown from native occupation to the close of 1991 is now available from The Esquesing Historical Society. The society is proud to publish this well-documented and liberally illustrated history of a Town and its inhabitants. John Mark Benbow Rowe, a member of the Historical Society and resident of the area, has spent many years researching this book.

The book has many photographs, all reproduced with exceptional clarity. They all came from the large photographic collection of the Esquesing Historical Society at the Georgetown Public Library. The text is easy to read and will be of use to residents, visitors, casual historians, researchers, and students alike.

This 1992 publication sells for $7.50 from Oxbow Books, Georgetown or $7.00 from the Esquesing Historical Society direct. Inquiries or purchase orders may be placed with:

The Esquesing Historical Society
P.O. Box 51, Georgetown,
Ontario L7G 4T1

Please enclose $1.50 each, postage/handling for one to four copies ordered by post. For orders over four copies, please send $1.00 per copy. Other publications by the Esquesing Historical Society are also available.
