

Chairman Pete raises $45,000 for Halton Women's Place

Halton Region Chairman Pete Pomeroy's Second Annual Charity Golf Tournament at Acton's Blue Springs Golf Course raised $45,000 for Halton Women's Place. Our camera caught a few of the scenes.

Helmut Wientapper of "Ferrostaal", located in Germany, attempts to make a shot on the practice green while comics Gordie Tapp and Pete Pomeroy ham it up.

Park Lincoln Motors put up a new car as a hole in one prize. Lisa Downs of Halton Women's Place helps Pete place the sign.
