Strange tales - What's up Captain Comic?

It's time for Captain Comic to use those special powers endowed in him by the higher beings of this known multiverse. Come close my Comic junkies, I have very important information for you! A port-hole in the FOURTH DIMENSION allows me to see into the future, that which is not now but soon will be. I have seen the future of comics and it is thus...

For the month of September I foresee great things for the great Marvel comic company. As usual, Marvel has incredibly awesome books coming out. The BIG HIT will be Marvel's attempt at creating a future for their major titles. SPIDER-MAN 2099 will be the first installment and will take place over 100 years from now with a new futuristic Spider-man with different powers. As of yet this character is still a mystery but if he's portraying Spider-man then no doubt it'll be awesome!

As for the X-titles, there is a BIG CROSSOVER beginning with Uncanny X-Men #294. The series will be called "X-EGUTIONER'S SONG" and it's 12 parts. Each issue will come pre-bagged with one of 12 trading cards. This series will crossover into all the X-titles and the story surrounds an assassination attempt made on Professor Xavier with the blame being placed on Cable!

The "Rise of the Midnight Sons" series will continue with Nightstalkers #1 and finish with Ghost Rider #31 coming out late in September.

DC is also coming out with some new stuff. A new ongoing series for Bat-man called "The Bat-man Adventures" will begin in September. The book stars both the Penguin and the Joker as they pull off some most ambitious robberies. This title comes out just in time for the new Bat-man animated series and is done in the same style: Deathstroke, the Terminator, Team Titans, and Teen Titans continue with the "Total Chaos" storyline. Eclipso returns from DC's summer annuals crossover to star in his own book called Eclipso (figures).

Dark Horse brings its final Terminator title out in September called "Terminator: Endgame". In this final 3 issue series, Skynet sends one of its largest Terminators into the past in order to prevent the birth of John Connor, even as his mother goes into labour!

And last but not least (don't you have it when writers make those stupid cliches?), we have Image line. The new title from Image this month will be "Supreme" by Rob Liefeld and Brian Murray. The first issue has Supreme return to Earth after 50 years to find a growing population of genetically engineered super humans. His first experience with these beings is an all-out battle with Youngblood! Don't forget about Image comics #0. For this issue you have to mail in 7 different coupons from 7 dif ferent Image comics. This comic will be a BIG HIT with investors because of its limitation and high investment potential.

With a flash of bright light and a whiff of ozone the porthole closes. You see, even with my nearly infinite powers I cannot control simple portholes, bummer. Oh well, at least you have some idea as to what the future holds and until next week, this is Captain Comic with another STRANGE TALE.
