

Georgetown,
Ontario!

NEWS FLASH

It has been reported that Big Bart Bear is holding several teddies hostage at 138 Mill Street. He refuses to give up his home of 4-1/2 years and move to Mississauga. He has the backing of many loyal bear collectors in the community.

Sources close to the bearkeeper say she has bowed to all the pressure and has postponed the 'great moving adventure' indefinitely.

Teddy Bear Specialties

will resume operation at 138 Mill Street,
Downtown Georgetown on Saturday, June 23rd, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Summer business hours will be: Thursday 10-6 Friday 10-6 Saturday 9-5
(Additional Hours By Appointment)

Thanks Georgetown for reminding me what a great community this is.

Education superintendent charged with sexual assault

By KAREN SMITH
Special

A senior Halton Board of Education official was among 20 men arrested in a police crackdown on illegal sexual activity in a Hamilton park.

Graeme John Barrett, the board's superintendent of education services, was charged earlier this month with sexual assault in a Hamilton-Wentworth Regional Police undercover operation.

Barrett, 53, of Burlington and 11 other men were charged with sexual assault in Operation Rosebud, aimed at tackling illegal sexual activity in the park and parking areas adjacent to York Blvd. from Dundurn St. to Plains Rd. in Hamilton. The charge of level one sexual assault refers to unwanted touching of sexual organs without causing serious injuries, police said.

Eight other men were charged with committing an indecent act.

Barrett went on sick leave last Friday, the same day the Halton Board of Education learned of the charge, said Director of education Bob Williams.

School trustees will determine what, if any, disciplinary action will be taken, Williams said. Barrett, who is undergoing treatment for an illness, is receiving full pay while on leave, Williams said.

Clarification on Satan's Choice hangout

A story in the June 16 issue stated that the Satan's Choice motorcycle gang occupies two "fortified" units of a Milton industrial condominium complex. This information is incorrect, according to Rayne

Dougherty, who operates a legitimate motorcycle storage facility out of unit 5 of the Lawson Rd. industrial condominium. Dougherty states that his unit is in no way barricaded or fortified, and that the Satan's Choice only rents unit 4.
