

LAW falters in local powderpuff play

The long arm of the L.A.W. just wasn't quite long enough. The L.A.W. dropped a pair of one-run decisions and then managed a tie in Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League play.

Jen Reynolds homered and doubled as Green Beer Eh's edged the L.A.W. 17-16. Later in the week All Sorts scored a late run to squeak by the L.A.W. 9-8. The L.A.W.'s third game saw them battle Mean & Ugly to a 4-4 tie. Lorraine Capreol, Stephanie Burke and Wendy Harris each doubled for the L.A.W.

Mean & Ugly topped Navy Seals 15-10 on the strength of Marg Crowley's three doubles while Robin Richardson drove in four runs and Michelle Deschenes doubled three times as Hanging with the Hogs cooled off the Red Hot Chilly Peppers 22-16.

The Chilly Peppers then dropped their second straight, going down 14-9 to Out of the Blue. The Grape Escape breezed past We'll Drink To That 15-3 while The Spoilers lived up to their name, downing Green Beer Ehs 12-8 for their first win of the season.

Navy Seals edged the Red Hot Chilly Peppers 12-11 and the Moodie Blues defeated We'll Drink To That 15-6. Javahjoli XXV picked up their first victory by beating Off Base 11-9.

Sportsmen suffer first setback

The Bighorns shut down the defending Georgetown Flag Football League champions, downing the Bandits 16-6 last week.

Darrell Weir paced the upset with three field goals, including a monster 50-yarder to help his squad.

The Hawks pulled out a close 28-24 decision over the M&M Sportsmen while the Hurricanes blew past IRS 16-1. It was the first loss of the season for M&M.
