Krystle Thompson — St. Joseph's

Grade 8 teacher Claude Malette says Krystle Thompson is "a treat to have in the classroom."

"She's always a peacemaker in the classroom. She settles arguments, rather than starts them," he said. She's also dedicated to her home life and attends mass regularly. She enjoys sports, and was on the volleyball team this year.

"If someone is down, she'll try and cheer them up. She's a hard worker, her homework is always done and she has an A average," Malette said. Krystle is meticulous and always takes initiative.

Richard Grace — Holy Cross

Grade 8 student, Richard Grace is very well-mannered and the top student in his class, said teacher Mauro Uliana.

"You'd like your son to be like him. He's very well-mannered and well-liked by other students, he doesn't seek out attention and gets along with everybody," he said. Richard plays volleyball and basketball and also karate. He is always willing to help. He follows a Christian lifestyle and comes from a very supportive family.

Grant Carioni — Bishop Reding

An OAC student, Grant Carioni was elected as valedictorian for his graduating class. He is president of the school's environmental awareness club which he has chaired with enthusiasm, said principal Onnig Pilibossian. He does well academically and received a number of awards at graduation. Grant has worked with Students Against Impaired Driving.

"He's an outstanding person as far as personality. He has patience, and good academic accomplishments," Pilibossian said.
