Racking up the runs

Limehouse nipped in battle for first

During the past couple of weeks, Limehouse Midget Girls have racked up a respectable record in the Intercounty Softball loop, with three wins and a loss.

In their first home game, Limehouse rocked Glen Williams, as pitchers Alley Campbell and Sharon Kearsy held the Glen to one run, while Limehouse racked up 16.

Limehouse then faced Orangeville on their turf, both teams undefeated, vying for first place.

After two scoreless innings, Orangeville notched three runs in their half of the third as Limehouse answered with one in the fourth and six in the fifth, taking a 7-4 lead.

Orangeville's two runs in the bottom of the fifth narrowed the gap, followed by eight in the sixth, closing the door on Limehouse, for a 14-8 final.

Things reversed, as Limehouse travelled to Harriston, battling rain drops and their opponents in a soggy contest that ended in an 11-8 Limehouse win.

Sharon Kearsy pitched her best game of the season, going four innings, facing 23 batters for only six hits, while delivering five Ks.

Reliever Robin Zander came in to mop things up. Sheri Buker cleaned up at the plate, with two hits, three RBIs, three walks while scoring four runs.

The season's most exciting game was played June 19 as Limehouse dealt a heartbreaker to Arthur Midgets.

It was a storybook finish; bottom of the seventh, Limehouse down by two. A single and walk placed Sheri Buker at second and Sharon Kearsy at first, when Laurel Komorowski's sac fly moved them a bag. Carrie Schenk's hot double scored Buker from third, followed by Lindsay Brown's sacrifice at first to bring in Kearsy, tying the game.

With fans and players cheering, Schenk at third and two gone, Mary Ann Brown fired a single into right centre clenching the game with a 6-5 win.

One-third into the season, Limehouse Midgets hold second place, with a 5 and 1 record.

Next game is July 3, when the local squad faces Fergus at Limehouse Park — 8:45 p.m.
