

Minor peewees win three of four

The Georgetown Minor Peewee Eagles have been victorious in three of their last four regular season outings.

The Eagles hosted Rockwood in a 11-7 winning effort. Brad Whittaker scored 3 of the 11 runs. Strong defensive play helped secure the win.

The Eagles suffered a loss to Kilbride 8-4 in their next outing. A couple of walks and infield error early in the game cost the Eagles as Kilbride was able to secure the lead. Dustin Weger pitched a no hitter in the sixth but a come-back wasn't in the cards.

The Eagles picked up their next two wins on the road, beating Rockwood 12-8 in a late game under the lights.

Dustin Weger's lead-off triple and Mike Mossop's two RBI double were the offensive plays that the Eagles needed to ensure the win.

The next evening the Eagles travelled to Acton to take on their closest rivals. It was a close game from the start. The Eagles went ahead in the 2nd inning, but Acton kept the heat on. Kris Shepard had a lead-off triple and Andrew McGourty had a successful bunt down the first base line to help the team to an 8-6 victory.
