

Bantam Eagles soar to victory

Solid pitching efforts by Matt Walker and Shawn Hill enabled the Georgetown Major Bantam Eagles to defeat the Mississauga North Bengals 5-3 on Tuesday evening, improving their first place standing in the COBA 'A' group to 6-2-1.

Shawn Hill's double in the first inning scored Sean Muscat and Andrew Coe, to take the early lead. A couple of fielding errors and passed balls allowed Mississauga to score their 3 runs.

The Eagles battled back with a bases loaded bunt single by Kevin Becker to score Simon

Ford and tie the game. A fielder's choice allowed Sean Muscat to reach first and keep the bases loaded. A shaken Mississauga pitcher then walked Andrew Cook and Andrew Coe to score Georgetown's final two runs.

The Eagles next home game is Tuesday, July 8, at Georgetown South Diamond, 8:30 p.m. start against Milton.
