All aboard!

David Smeltzer played conductor on a 1921 TTC streetcar for the Halton County Radial Railway Museum's corn roast recently. The museum has fully restored and operational railway, trolley and subway cars dating back as far as the 1890s. The museum, located just north of 25 Sideroad on the Guelph Line, attracts 20,000 visitors each year.

Free vocal lessons offered

If you are intrigued in becoming part of a group that studies singing in four-part harmony, loves to perform and compete in regional and international competitions, consider taking part in a series of five free vocal lessons that will start on Monday, Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m. (You do not need to be able to read music).

These lessons will be taught by A Cappella Showcase's award winning Director Judy Comeau at 311 Commercial Street in Milton at the Optimist's Hall. (The room downstairs at the back).

A Cappella Showcase offers special entertainment performances for corporate functions, groups and charities. Please contact Performance Manager Cathy Evanoff at (905) 891-0240. Christmas bookings for the chorus are now being accepted. Call Verna for general information at (519) 856-4842.

GLT meets

■ The first general meeting of the 1996-97 theatre season for Georgetown Little Theatre will be held on Sept. 3 at The Studio, 33 Stewarttown Rd. Social time, 7:30 p.m., meeting at 8 p.m. For information call Elizabeth Barfoot, 873-9987.
