

Suspicious man

Police are investigating the report of a suspicious person who was seen on Gould Cr. in Acton between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Wednesday. Police say a man in his 30s, about 5'9", with a small build and short dark brown hair came to the door of a house on the street and told the woman resident he had a free sample of bleach then asked to come inside. She didn't allow him in and he was seen leaving in a grey van with some other men. Anyone who may have seen the van, or experienced a similar situation that day should call police at 878-5511 ext. 2105.

POLICE BLOTTER

Goods stolen

About $2,500 worth of goods were taken from a Town Line Halton Hills home sometime between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday during a break and enter. Police say the front door of the house was forced open during the break in. Missing are a stereo system, CD player, computer, fishing rod, reels and tackle, VCR and golf clubs.

Fires set at school

Police are investigating several small fires that have been set in garbage containers in washrooms at Acton High School over the past three weeks. Police say while only minor damage has been caused by the fires they could have spread to other areas of the school and resulted in extensive damage and injuries. Police report the person responsible for the fires could face a mischief or even an arson charge.

Fall fashions

Models from the olde Hide House in Acton displayed some of the newest leather fashions at a benefit fashion show at Acton Legion, in aid of the Acton branch of the Canadian Cancer Society recently. Visitors enjoyed refreshments and desserts as well as a chance to peruse some of the newest fashions available.
