Friendly service keeps customers coming back to Leathertown Lumber

Leathertown Lumber's Betty Farr figures it's friendly, personalized service that keeps people coming back to the family-run business.

"Each customer is important to us, whether it's an independent do-it-yourselfer or an accomplished professional builder. Everyone deserves the best service we can offer," says Betty, co-owner of the business with husband Vic. She and her son Tom run the day-to-day operations with help from daughter Jo-Anne.

The family has a 30-year history in the lumber business, the last five of which have been at Leathertown Lumber—located at 264 Main Street N. in Acton.

Leathertown Lumber carries a full range of hardware and building supplies as well as quality lumber. The business offers free lumber delivery, while free coffee compliments the friendly, personalized service they have offered their customers for the past half-decade.

Leathertown Lumber is open Monday to Saturday from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
