Seniors visit Pumpkinfest

By ROLAND LOBB
Georgetown Seniors Centre

On Saturday, October 19, Grant Greenaway led a group of 14 seniors to Waterford, Ont. where they took part in the town's annual Pumpkinfest. They viewed a parade of floats and marching bands which lasted almost an hour and toured the streets of Waterford where most homes were already decorated for Halloween.

At the Centre's monthly travelogue held Oct. 21, Ron Lonsdale of Collette Tours made a presentation on Arizona to 10 seniors in attendance.

Betty McTague was invited by the program committee to discuss with a gathering of 15 seniors the importance of caring for one's feet.

The Centre is selling Christmas cakes at $7 for a two pound cake as a fund-raising project. We invite you to make your purchase early as the cakes are selling quickly.

Winners of last Wednesday's euchre: Maurice Herbert, Maureen Gipp (high score); Cliff Glaude, Bill Idzi, Ethel McEachern (most lone hands).

Winner of last Wednesday's bridge: Lorena Norris.

Winners of last Thursday's cribbage: Bill Anderson, Garnet Cameron (high score), Florence Lomax, Betty Barclay (low score).

Winners of last Thursday's shuffleboard: Ken Mowat, Jack Dills (first); Mattie Mowat, Jean Cowen (second).

CONGRATULATIONS

Timothy James Hancock and Laurie Sue Hiner were united in marriage on Saturday, September 28th, 1996 at The Inn at Fordhook Farm in Doylestown, Pennsylvania. The ceremony took place outdoors and was conducted by the Rev. Skip Davis of St. Andrews United Methodist church. Approximately 90 guests attended from several U.S. states and from Ontario. Among the guests were the grooms parents, Dennis and Riemke Hancock, sister Tanya and her husband Kevin Brisley, all of Georgetown.

The couple left the following day for a two week honeymoon in Italy travelling from Rome to Milano.

Timothy, a former Georgetown District High School and Waterloo University grad, completed his degrees last year at Lehigh University with a Ph.D. in Chemical Engineering and is currently working at Unigen Laboratories in New Jersey. His bride, Laurie, is a computer applications consultant for CSC and is currently working in the Philadelphia area.
