Georgetown Tri-County Minor Novice

After tying first-place Oakville, Georgetown Minor Novice Raider goalie Alex Bulgarelli posted back-to-back shutouts in OMHA Tri-County play. The successful week lifted the Raiders to 7-2-3 on the season.

Georgetown blanked Milton 3-0 at home. Jeff Bayley scored twice and Brady Gingras had the other goal. Assists went to Chris Darling and Brett Reynolds.

Georgetown followed that up with an identical 3-0 triumph over Burlington. Darling had a pair of goals and Bayley netted one. Cory McLaughlin, Ryan Putnam and Brett Reynolds each had an assist.

The 2-2 tie against Oakville ended their opponent's perfect season. Aggressive forechecking led to the Raiders first goal as Michael Larose scored from Michael Clost and Raymond Martin. Darling scored the second goal on a power play.

Major Atom

The Georgetown Major Atom Raiders dropped a pair of close OMHA Tri-County games after an 11-day layoff. The Raiders were edged 5-4 by Oakville and 5-3 by St. Catharines.

The Raiders took a 3-1 lead against Oakville on two goals by Brad Norton and a shorthanded marker by Jordan Armstrong. Oakville came back with three straight goals to take its first lead of the game. Doug Bell tied the game but Oakville scored the winner with a minute to play.

Matt Hiltz had a pair of assists with singles to Sean Graham and Eric Euteneier.

It was the Raiders that got behind against St. Catharines, trailing 4-1. Jordan Cole, who scored the first Raider goal, set up defenceman Darryl Veltman to start the Georgetown comeback. Ryan Hirtle then pulled the Raiders within one but St. Catharines put the game with a late goal. Kyle Termini had two assists.

Seven Selects

Michael Weber had both goals, giving him six in two games, as the Georgetown Seven Selects were edged 3-2 by Chinguacousy. Sean Taylor and Lucas Ovendon drew assists. Byron Hackett and Blake Seaton were standouts on defence. The Georgetown Seven Selects split their games this past weekend. The Selects dropped a 3-1 decision to Brampton. Jeff Pierce had the lone Georgetown goal.

At home Michael Weber's four-goal performance led the Selects to a 5-3 victory over Caledon. Pierce had the other goal while Jesse Modzelewski, Jordan Thompson and Seaton had one assist each.

Minor Atom

The M&M Pro Sports Minor Atom Raiders registered only one win despite outplaying and outshooting their opponents in three OMHA Tri-County contests.

Woolwich took a 3-0 lead but the Raiders could not beat the opposition goalie until the final two minutes. Nick McLaughlin scored from David McNally and Brad Torres. Kevin Field cut the lead to one with 39 seconds to play. Mark Boycott and Matt Lyons assisted on the goal.

Goaltending again led the opposition to victory as St. Catharines doubled the Raiders 4-2. Field and McNally scored for the Raiders.

The Raiders ended the trend with a 4-2 win over Oakville. Matt Veltzen scored twice, including the winner while Aaron Kirk and James Mountford had the other goals. McLaughlin had three assists with singles going to Tim Walinga, Travis Bland, Kirk, Boycott and Veltzen.

Atom II

A 5-2 loss to Arthur snapped the BDO Capital Atom Two Raiders' three-game unbeaten streak in OMHA Tri-County play. Mike Zelek set up Shawn Emmerton to open the scoring but Arthur scored three straight. Colin Lumb converted a perfect pass from Emmerton for the Raiders' second goal. Jordan Jacobs played a solid defensive game.

The Raiders couldn't hold an early 3-0 lead against Acton. Their crosstown rivals scored five unanswered goals for the win. Derek Naylor and Jim Presant each had a goal and an assist for the Raiders. Lumb had the other Raider goal and Kyle Kennery had two assists. Zelek and Lanny Detoro had single helpers.

Minor Bantam

The Georgetown Dan Bodanis Minor Bantam AA Raiders flexed their muscles in a pair of road games this week, downing Orangeville 6-1 then thumping the Brampton Maroons 5-1.

The wins upped their record to 5-3-1 in a very competitive Bowen Division race.

Matt Walinga held the hot hand for the Raiders in Orangeville counting a goal and three assists. Craig Fisher notched a pair in the win while Shannon Stapleton, Riley McAneney and Peter Veltman netted the others. Solo helpers went to Brydon Butterworth, Dave Gibbons, Ryan Inglis, Derrick Inscoc, Dave Giordano, Adam Caines, Jamey Doole and Stapleton. Nate Cardon was between the pipes for the win.

Walinga netted two against Brampton, while Veltman, Inglis and McAneney had the others. Inscoc assisted on two, with McAneney, Butterworth, Giordano, Caines, Doole, Veltman and Dan Fievet adding singles. Simon Saulnier shone in goal.
