The mirror reminds you every day.
Your face is showing the battle scars of life. Wrinkles, lines and tired-looking eyes, instead of the smooth serene of maturity. Creams and lotions don't seem to help.

Wrinkles... Aarrgghh!

But now, there is an answer.
The UltraPulse cosmetic laser brings the wonders of high-tech into the battle against the ravages of time. Safe, gentle skin resurfacing that brings back your youthful glow. And unlike most other remedies, the results are permanent.

Bazaar raises $3,000 for centre

The centre held its Remembrance Day ceremony on Nov. 12 after a soup and sandwich lunch attended by 80 members. Florance Carswell acted as master of ceremony. Charles Tutty, retired from the Georgetown Legion Branch 120, spoke about the Canadian troops involved in United Nations peace keeping efforts around the world. After a moment of silence, the centre's choir, led by Florence Wilkenson, interpreted inspirational songs.

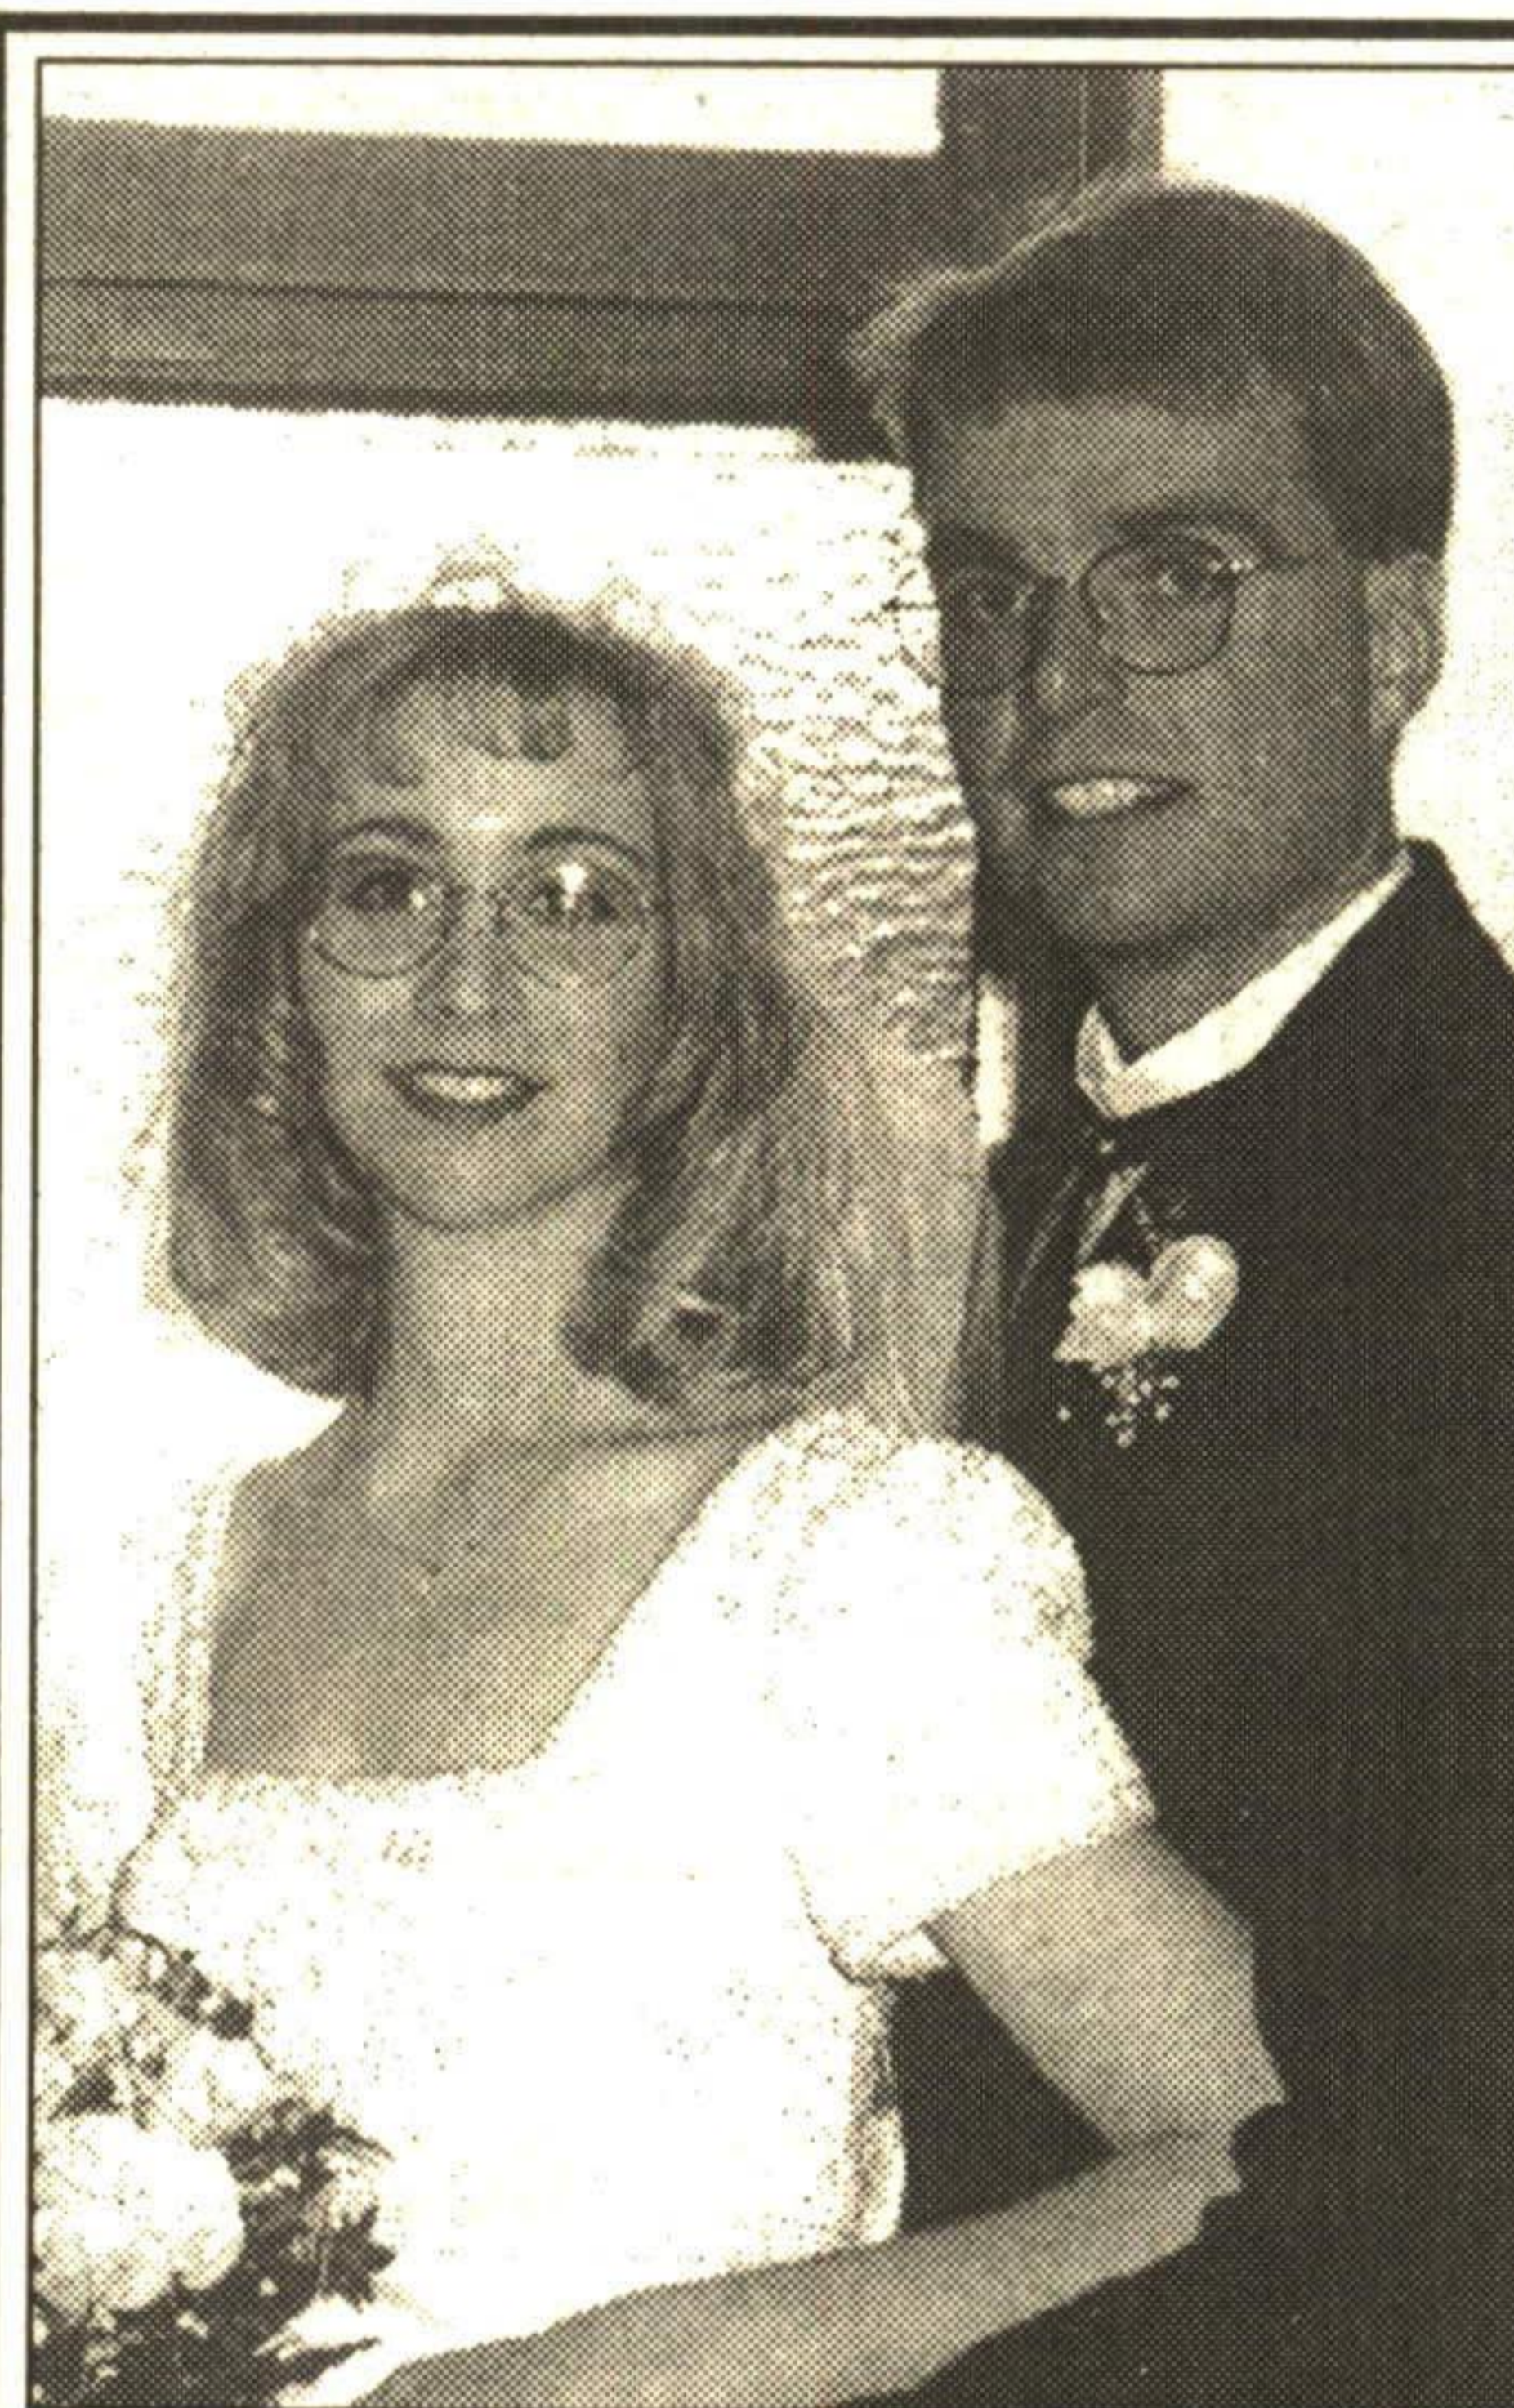

November 16 was the Christmas bazaar. The special event raised over $3,000 and was attended by about 400 people. Edith Medland won a Christmas cake especially baked and decorated by Ethel McEachran. Fiona Hilts won the afghan draw.

Winners of the Money Tree were G. Hardcastle ($200), D. Zawacki ($100) and H. Lorenzen ($50). The conveners, Betty Dixon and Betty Kennedy, thank all the centre volunteers who worked at the bazaar.

Fifteen tables assembled Nov. 19 for evening euchre. Winners were: Audrey Dando, Garnet Cameron (high score), Alice Gray, Ivy King, Madeline Collier, Neil Frawley (most lone hands), Kay Ledwidge, Helen McNeil (consolation).

Terry and Marjut Shields of Ballinafad are proud to announce the marriage of their daughter Sarah Kimberley Anne to Ashley Jay (A.J.) Ryers son of Gail and Ed Byers of Winchester on the 16th of November, 1996

Both graduates of the University of Waterloo, took their careers to the Ottawa area, where they now reside (Chesterville).

Congrats kids,
Mom and Dad
