Rep hockey roundup...

Major Novice Raiders

Joel Greaves set up Corey Carlton's game-winning goal and then added an insurance marker as the Georgetown Major Novice Raiders defeated the Brampton Maroons 3-1 in OMHA Tri-County play. Kevin Greer had the first Georgetown goal, from Ryan Torres and Alex Ingrangaro.

The Raiders also hosted the powerful Oakville Rangers. Midway through the game, the Raiders were tied on goals by Michael Carter and Ingrangaro. Ryan Reist, Carlton and Carter had assists. However, Oakville netted five straight goals for a 7-2 win. Goalies Dylan Malchin and Jordan White stopped 32 shots.

Oakville handed the Raiders another loss in a tournament in Fort Erie. The next day Niagara-on-the-Lake defeated the Raiders. Georgetown then outshot Pelham 17-13 but lost 3-1.

Novice II Raiders

After promising play in a tournament in Fenelon Falls, the Georgetown Referee's Association Novice II Raiders returned home to record their first OMHA Tri-County point of the season.

The Raiders battled Flamborough to a 3-3 tie. A.J. Syme led the way with a goal and an assist. Eric Davis and Chad Mercer also scored while Colin Chandler and Robert Paglia had an assist each. Strong play in their own end by Paglia, Derek Courchesne, Adam Hess and Nick Hulme helped out goalie Curtis Sargent.

In the tournament, the Raiders had two strong efforts. Peterborough edged the Raiders 1-0 and then came up just short against Fenelon Falls 5-4.

Major Pee wee Raiders

Chris Henderson allowed only a single goal as the Georgetown Instore Focus Pee wee Raiders won back-to-back OMHA Tri-County games. The Raiders blanked Brampton 2-0 and blasted Oakville 7-1.

Georgetown and Brampton battled through two scoreless periods before Brandon Valente and Kyle Hotham scored for the Raiders.

Hotham had a hat-trick against Oakville and Sean McCulloch scored twice. Dan Roffel and Nick Black had the other Georgetown goals.

Minor Pee wee Raiders

The Georgetown Charley FitzWhiskey's Minor Pee wee Raiders blasted Woolwich 11-1, outshooting their hosts 55-3.

Thomas Stokes, who also had a pair of assists, Kevin Oulds and Mike Davison each scored twice for Georgetown in the OMHA Tri-County match.

Andrew McGourty, Dan Walinga each had a goal and two assists while Billy McDonald Rusty Parsons and Brett Velten scored once and set up another. Eric Thompson, Scott Rostrup, Matt Knoepfli and Mike Eichstedt each assisted on two goals. Raider goalie Donnie Lane lost his shutout with 12 seconds to play.

Two nights earlier, the Raiders defeated Woolwich 6-1. Velten led the way with two goals while Eichstedt
