BREB's new executive

"Realtor members of the Brampton Real Estate Board (BREB) are expanding their MLS database to increase the level of services they provide to buyers and sellers," says Acton's Heather Scotland, the newly-elected president of the BREB. Pictured above are the 1996-97 board of directors. Front row, from left, are Stuart Braund, Sharon Fuda, past president Ken McClenaghan, president Heather Scotland and Ray McDonald. Back row, from left, are vice-president Rui Alves, Carol Wood and Cathy Kratochvil. The BREB continues to be active in developing a working alliance with all other real estate boards in the Greater Toronto Area. The BREB serves the communities of Acton, Georgetown, Erin, Eramosa, Caledon, Brampton, Bramalea and Malton.

At Metro Convention Centre

Annual Metro Home Show is scheduled for Jan. 16-19

The 1997 Metro Home Show will run from January 16-19 at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre.

According to a Canadian Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC) study, almost half of Canadian home owners plan to renovate over the next 12 months and 43 per cent will do it themselves.

With more than 300 companies at the show, anyone considering renovations will have ample opportunity to see, buy and compare everything from time saving renovation techniques to innovative interior design and decor, state-of-the-art home electronics, distinctive landscape architecture and hot new outdoor products...all under one roof.

Show hours are Thursday and Friday, noon to 9:30 p.m., Saturday, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., Sunday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Admission is $9 for adults, $6.50 for seniors and youths (13-17 years). Children get in free.

Metro Toronto Convention Centre is located at 255 Front St. W. (west of Union Station)
