Charlie Brown comes to life

In keeping with their tradition of putting on solid theatrical productions, the cast and crew of Acton High School's You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown, hope to have surpassed their already excellent reputation for musical performances.

Following in the footsteps of such memorable stage acts as Little Shop of Horrors and The Truth about Cinderella, You're A Good Man Charlie Brown promises to be lots of fun for the whole family.

The director of the show, Paul Tamblin, has undertaken this monumental task with the aid of creative genius, and producer, Carolyn Hermiston. The musical talents of Margaret Tamblin provide a strong base behind the scenes. The seemingly boundless energy and patience of the production crew have paid off, as the many pieces of the show are finally beginning to come together.

The cast of this musical include the following: Nick Vancek in the lead role of Charlie Brown; Meredith Kenzie as his faithful companion, Snoopy; Jenn Johnson as the ever-intimidating, Lucy van Pelt; Andrew Durham as the musical wizard, Schroeder; Tricia Johnson as the tomboyish, Peppermint Pattie; and James Metcalfe as the blanket-bound, boy genius, Linus.

Other members of the ensemble include Nicole Devries, Nicole Duncan, Tracy McLaughlin, and producer, Carolyn Hermiston who hope to add a little depth and pizzazz to this relatively small cast.

With this much creative talent on hand You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown hopes to combine its comic strip comedy and a unique heart-warming score to provide a rare and touching theatrical experience for all ages.

The show goes on stage on tomorrow (Thursday) and Friday, April 4 at 7:30 p.m. with a final matinee show on Saturday, April 5 at 1:30 p.m. Tickets are available for $5 for seniors and children under 12, and $6 for adults and students.
