

For April 6 concert Halton Hills Children's Chorus to team up with Oakville group

The Halton Hills Children's Chorus will jointly present "Spring into Song" on April 6 at 4 p.m. with the Oakville Children's Chorus.

Only three years old, the Oakville Children's Choir has already taken a first place in the Peel Music Festival under Glenda Crawford's direction and training. As a feature presentation, the two choirs will jointly present songs of Hebrew origin.

Halton Hills Director, Sharon Dutton, says, "Hebrew songs are beautifully earthy in their melodious minor modes, yet these arrangements have enough sophistication for a concert choir in a concert setting."

The Halton Hills children will treat the Oakville group to dinner, after the concert, courtesy of Pizza Hut, McDonald's, Tim Hortons Donuts and all the major Georgetown retail food outlets.

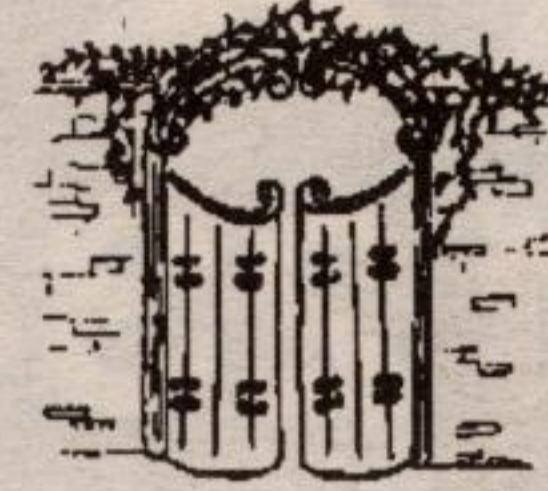

Both choirs are members of the Ontario Choral Federation and are committed to the development of arts education through choral singing.

The concert will take place at the Georgetown Alliance Church on the Eighth Line, south of Maple Ave.

Tickets will be available at the door, adults $6, children and seniors, $4.
