

Georgetown Legion prepares for election of new officers this month

By COLIN GIBSON
Georgetown Legion news

Branch 120 will be a beehive of activity over the next several days. The final general meeting will be held 8 p.m.

on Thursday, (tomorrow) before the elections of officers for the forthcoming term takes place. Nominations will open and remain open through election day, April 27, commencing at 1 p.m. Eligible voters are reminded to produce their membership card or a receipt for dues paid at the door on April 27. Officers from Oakville Legion will be supervising the election.

Friday night is Newfie Night at Branch 120. Musical group, 'Chase n' Harry' will entertain a sold-out crowd of down-easters and other wannabe Cod-kissers. The group is led by John Delaney, nephew of the ultimate Newf, Harry Hibbs. The fun starts at 6:30 p.m. and traditional Newfie fare will be served at 7 p.m. with the entertainment to follow.

On Saturday, Branch 120 will host the Spring Honors, Awards and Initiation evening. Initiation team members and new members to be initiated should report to the branch before 7:30 p.m.

A Ladies Auxiliary Social Euchre will be held at the Erin Legion on April 12. Those interested in attending should contact the sports officer, ASAP.
