

We Are A Caring Community

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK
April 13 to 19, 1997

THE ARTHRITIS SOCIETY

HALTON/PEEL REGION

We wish to thank all of the dedicated Volunteers and Knights of Columbus members in the Halton Hills area who helped to make the 1996/97 fiscal year a success!! The money raised from all your fundraising efforts will go towards assisting the 4 million Canadians currently afflicted with Canada's #1 chronic disease in the form of research, education and public awareness.

DISTRESS CENTRE

NORTH HALTON

To The Dedicated Volunteers of the North Halton Distress & Information Centre & the Bereavement Support Program. A sincere thank you for your many hours of volunteering.

THANK YOU!

Friends of the Halton Region Museum

HALTON REGION MUSEUM
875-2200

VOLUNTEERS PRESERVING HALTON'S HERITAGE

MEALS ON WHEELS

GEORGETOWN
MEALS ON WHEELS
would like to thank all volunteers for their time and dedication over the past 21 years.

For information on how to become a Volunteer to drive or deliver call
MEALS ON WHEELS
873-6502

These many different a

Classics Against Cancer

Volunteers spend several hours every Father's Day hosting the Classic and Modified Car Show to raise funds for cancer research. This year marks their 10th annual show, on Sunday, June 15. Contact: Diane Masters, 877-5894.

Halton Social Planning Council and Volunteer Centre

The volunteer program provides direct service to individuals by providing information on volunteer opportunities throughout Halton Hills. The painting, High Tide, a watercolor by George Eayrs, will be raffled off at a fund-raising event in Oakville. Contact: Deborah Klassen, 878-0955.

Community Resource Services

This is a non-profit, community-based agency that provides a variety of services within the criminal justice system. Help can be used with their participation in the Oakville Waterfront Festival. Contact: Denise Crawford, (905) 632-6531.

Child Find Ontario

Child Find is a voluntary charitable organization dedicated to reducing the incidence of missing children/youth through the delivery of education programs pertaining to child safety issues. Contact: Jackie Cutmore, executive director, (905) 842-5353 or 1-800-447-6047.

Friends of the Halton Region Museum

Museum volunteers work in education programming, research and library services, exhibitions, the museum shop, special events and with artifact collections. Friends also enjoy special presentations and field trips. Contact: Linda Twitchell, (905) 875-2200.

The Arthritis Society

Volunteers for the Arthritis Society provide self-help programs, aquatic programs, public forums and support groups. They also help raise funds for research. The Halton Golf Classic in Burlington is set to run on June 27 this year. Contact: Helen Manels, (905) 712-2281.

Canadian Cancer Society Acton branch

Volunteers provide education and patient services programs including transportation, canvassing during the yearly dental campaign, and work on special events throughout the year. Services are provided to cancer patients, their families and the public. The Acton branch has scheduled a fund-raising golf tournament for June 9 this year. Contact: Cathy Geary, 853-1424.

Acton Support Services and Information (ASSIC)

Volunteers at this multi-service agency assist in home support programs such as Meals on Wheels, Transportation, Volunteer Visiting; provide office support and information; volunteer at the Parent-Child Resource Centre; serve on the board of directors and on many committees. ASSIC is raffling a quilt, to be drawn on June 11. Contact: Sue Haggith, 853-3111.

Acton FoodShare

Acton FoodShare has a team of 15 volunteers whose mission is to alleviate hunger and malnutrition in the Acton/Rockwood area. There is no specific fund-raising event planned, but ongoing donations of money or food are gratefully accepted. The Acton Scouts and Guides hold a food drive for FoodShare each fall. Phone: 853-0457.

Canadian Mental Health Association

Volunteers assist in programs aimed at providing people with the opportunity to enhance their mental health. Several fund-raising events are in the works: Unmask Mental Illness in June, The Blue Cross/CMHA Golf Tournament in July 15, Take a Kid Fishing in August, a Christmas auction in December, a Strawberry Social fashion show and a car wash. Contact: Leanne Conik, (905) 845-5044.

The Canadian Red Cross Society Halton Hills branch

The society runs a transportation program, blood donor program, an emergency services network, health care equipment loans, water safety and first aid classes and links to health services. Contact: Marlene Beitz, 877-5233.

North Halton Association for the Developmentally Handicapped

Volunteers within the association support persons with developmental disabilities to participate in their community.

Victorian Order Of Nurses

HALTON BRANCH

VON CANADA

Thank you to our dedicated volunteers. You have made an excellent contribution to your community. Well Done!

To volunteer with VON Halton please call:
827-8800

ACTON
SUPPORT SERVICES AND INFORMATION
CENTRE

"THE OLD TOWN HALL"
19 WILLOW ST. N.,
ACTON (HALTON HILLS)
ONTARIO L7J 1Z6
(519) 853-3310
FAX: (519) 853-3530

Acton Support Services and Information Centre would like to thank all the dedicated and caring volunteers that assist us in the following areas:

- *Meals on Wheels
- *Senior's Luncheon's
- *Transportation
- *Volunteer Visiting
- *Office Support/Information
- *Board of Director/Committees

Acton Parent-Child Resource Centre

Thanks to all the wonderful volunteers that help with programs and special events at the Acton Parent-Child Resource Centre.