

Shriner of the year

Shriner Ambassador Bill Tindall (left) presents Ron Lovegrove of Georgetown (centre) with his certificate as Shriner of the Year for the Credit Valley Shrine Club in the presence of club president, Glenn Woolfrey (right).

The centre held its family roast beef dinner on Saturday, March 15 at Holy Cross Hall. Siena van Hoekelen and her group of volunteers served more than 160 guests. The master of ceremony was Roy Ballentine and entertainment was provided by Ivy King at the piano.

Fifty-six players were at our March 18 euchre. High score winners were Eva Roberts and Mae Harley; most lone hands were won by Ivy King, Glad Ingles, Rod King and Orval Paul; the consolation prize was awarded to Dorothy Ireland.

Our centre's craft group has been very busy of late. On March 18, Claire Brooker spoke to an audience of 14 craft group members about philosopher's wool, wool dyeing, and sheep raising. On March 25, Daisy Harris helped 15 members arrange a spring silk flower centrepiece and on April 1, Joan Lovegrove demonstrated how to cover hangers.
