Selects claim league title

Jeff Pierce's overtime goal against Orangeville completed a comeback from a 3-0 deficit and sealed the Tri-County championship for the Georgetown Re/Max Seven Select Raiders.

The Raiders surrendered the first three goals but Michael Weber scored twice and Sean Taylor added another to pull the Raiders even. Michael Piperni, Daniel Limina and Michael Gillham set up the goals. Jesse Modzelewski played well on defence in the win while Michael Parker, Brendan Gingras and Lucas Ovenden provided excellent forechecking.

The Raiders also won the opening game of the series in overtime, edging Orangeville 3-2.

Weber's second goal of the game was the OT winner. Piperni had the other Georgetown goal in regulation play. Drawing assists were Taylor, Joshua Dewer and Gillham. Goalie Kyle McClure played a strong game in net for the win. Byron Hackett, Kyle Lockwood and Jordan Thompson provided strong defensive support.

Orangeville then evened the series at a game apiece with a 4-0 win.
