It now offers a fax workstation which allows entrepreneurs quick and easy access to the Canada-Ontario Business Service Centre (COBSC). The COBSC is a single access point to information on federal and provincial government programs, services and regulations. Through this workstation, entrepreneurs can gain access to a comprehensive database on 900 programs and services offered by the federal and provincial governments that are designed to assist businesses.

There is no fee for using this workstation, and it is open to the public, Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Halton Business Development Centre, Halton Region, 1151 Bronte Road, Oakville.

Government as Tax Partner

The annual tax preparation ritual sure commands attention. You worked all year and low and behold its now official. The government took their 40% again! Then there's local tax, GST and sales tax. What do you get?

It doesn't get any better when your estate meets Revenue Canada. For example, any sizable RRSP will attract 50% tax when passed on to the next generation.

If that motivates you enough perhaps you will investigate estate planning. The aim is to transfer your assets to your beneficiaries in an orderly fashion. It is much more than determining who gets what. You will also determine; how to best meet your financial needs the rest of your life; how to protect yourself if you become unable to manage your own affairs and what financial and health care decisions should someone make for you; you will be the executor of your estate; guidelines for regarding your wishes for medical treatment, organ donation, and funeral arrangements; how to provide for the financial stability of your family; who will look after your children; how to protect the interests of your children from a previous marriage; how to make sure your business survives without you; how to reduce fees and income taxes; how to get the inheritance to your beneficiaries smoothly and quickly; how to make effective charitable donations.

Complicated? Not really. Expensive? Not like fees and taxes. Painful? Certainly not a pleasant task and certainly not a task to face right now in the light of so many other pressing matters. But when? Maybe as part of the plan to reduce taxes after seeing first hand the share of your earnings that partner call the government just requisitioned from you.
