

What you said...

TIM EGAN

"Do you think the call for a federal election was appropriate at this time, and why, or why not?"

Tim Egan, sales, Georgetown
"Given our democratic situation with the government, and the way our political system works, it's their choice, so it's allowable."

ROSEMARY BUTLER-VOLLMER

Rosemary Butler-Vollmer, teacher, Georgetown
"Absolutely not. Due to the Manitoba flooding, it's undemocratic, and I'm shocked that they are still going ahead with this election. People's basic needs are not being met in Manitoba, so why are they proceeding?"

LLOYD LANTZ

Lloyd Lantz, self-employed, Georgetown
"No it's not appropriate, especially now with the floods in Manitoba, and the Constitution case coming up in Quebec this summer. I feel he (Chretien) should have waited until the courts rule on Quebec."

Joint training exercise set

On Saturday, May 10 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Halton Hills Fire Department and Halton Hills Ambulance Service will be holding a joint training exercise at the GO Station in Georgetown.

During the exercise firefighters and paramedics will be treating area students who are acting out injuries. The training drill is designed to hone the skills of the town's emergency personnel.

Fire and ambulance vehicles will access the train station via River Rd. and Victoria Rd. on a non-emergency basis. Anyone with questions or concerns should call Brian Ellsworth of Halton Hills Fire Department at 877-1133 or Greg Sage of Halton Hills Ambulance at 877-7772.
