

Downtown Georgetown renewal process continues

About 50 people representing various interests, are on the steering committee. Other people have signed on to work on groups focusing on mobility, promotion, activities, communications, visual enhancements and heritage.

Anyone interested in participating in the project should call Day at 873-3979.

APPOINTMENT

STEVE FOREMAN

Ken Nugent, publisher of the Independent & Free Press and the Brampton Guardian, is pleased to announce the appointment of Steve Foreman to the position of Advertising & Production Manager at the Independent & Free Press.

In this new position Steve, a resident of Georgetown for 15 years, will be responsible for all advertising sales functions at the Independent & Free Press, including retail, real estate, telemarketing and classified. In addition he will be responsible for the advertising production and pagination of the newspaper.

Steve's experience in advertising and sales management, coupled with his production background at the Independent & Free Press and the Brampton Guardian is well suited to take Georgetown's advertising and production departments to the next level.
