

Roland Lobb

Results for the Halton Hills local seniors games 1997 have already started to trickle in. Joyce Tilson convened the five-pin bowling event on March 28 and April 4. Of the 24 bowlers, the winning team was Norm Wilcox, Joe Primus, Marg Sronziwilk, Trevor Williams and Dolly Cutler. Seniors games cribbage was played on April 17. Alice Gray hosted six tables and the winners were: Helen Tomkinson and Chris Hornby (first), Neila Mowat and Mary Kately (second) and Agnes McGregor and Alice Gray (third). Ten players gathered for the seniors shuffleboard games on April 21. The winners were Gord Morton and Mabel Hives (first), Isabel MacDonald and Glen Emmerson (second) and Jim Kennedy and Jack Kearsy (third).

The centre held a spring luncheon on April 8 with 100 seniors lunching on sandwich and soup prepared by Siena van Hoekelen and her team of volunteers.

Our travel convener, Grant Greenway and his committee organized a trip for 40 seniors to Niagara Falls on April 24. They enjoyed a visit to the Niagara Parks Butterfly Conservatory, the casino and a walk along the falls.

Dodd returns with bronze

BY LOIS ROONEY-GIURIN
Norval News

Mitch Dodd has returned from the Canadian National Wrestling Championships held in Vancouver last month. He placed 4th in freestyle, and 3rd in Greco-Roman wrestling. He also placed 6th in the Senior Ontario competition held on April 20, in London, competing against university and college students.

An honors student in OAC, Mitch has been chosen to receive the OFSSA Sportsmanship Award. This selection is made by the referees.

Mitch will also be receiving the Board of Education Award of Excellence, an honor conferred upon him by his teachers. The award will be presented in May. Congratulations, Mitch. We're sure proud to have you in Norval!

A successful euchre

The results of the euchre night held at Norval Presbyterian Church on Friday, April 25, are as follows: high man, Ron McGowan; high lady, Velma Ella; low man, Gordon Sharpe; low lady, Prairie Bessey; most lone hands (man), Wally Jones; most lone hands (lady) Marion Hunter. The next euchre will be held on May 23.

Welcome Veronica and James

Congratulations to Scott and Sara Simpson on the birth of Veronica Louise on April 22. She is the ninth grandchild of Ted and Ruth Thompson.

Congratulations to Ted and Tracey Robinson on the birth of their third child, James on April 24. Ted and Tracey have just finished a major renovation on Spencer Wilson's old farm house.
