Volunteers build church retaining wall

BY BETTY SOJKA
Ballinafad news

The United Church garage-bake-plant sale this past weekend was kind of slow in sales. There just weren't the crowds. This was most unfortunate since there were some terrific bargains to be had. The bake and plant tables were wonderful in selection. Tasty hot-dogs were barbecued outside. Visitors to the sale and the Sunday church service had an opportunity to admire the new retaining wall along the driveway side of the church.

In a truly amazing community spirit, eight volunteers started working away on Monday, May 5, at 8 a.m. Working until 5 p.m. that day and the next, the work was completed. Plants were placed in the flower beds that the retaining walls support. Now closer to eye level, they can readily be admired. Thanks so much.

There will be a euchre night at the community centre tomorrow, May 15, starting at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $3 per person. Everyone is welcome. A light luncheon, refreshments and chances to win prizes are all included in the cost.

Friday night Mixed Baseball debuts this Friday, May 16. This recreational night begins at 7 p.m. at Ballinafad's Jim Bailey diamond. For more information call 873-7125.
