

Warris third at Flamboro Speedway

Ryan Warris of Georgetown finished third in the challenger division at Flamboro Speedway.

Warris was in second place, battling Terry Bleakney of Hamilton for the lead on the final lap by Todd Forsyth slipped by him in turn three. The 15-lap race featured four cautions, including a 10-car pileup on the lap five.

Bleakney crossed the line first but was bumped to second because of a penalty for jumping the start on a caution. That handed the win to Forsyth.

Races at Flamboro begin at 6:45 p.m. Saturday and 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Soccer champs declared

Green edged Red 2-1 in a low-scoring final of the Georgetown Soccer Club Boys Under-11 indoor final. In the consolation final, Blue upset the regular season champions, Yellow, 6-3. Matt Sweeting of Blue was the league scoring champion with 11 goals.

The Boys Under-15 final was another close match with Blue edging Red 3-2. Green defeated Yellow 8-3 in the consolation final. Led by scoring champion Josh Sweeting and his 17 goals, Red had won the regular season title.

Selects seventh

The Peel Selects defeated Dalhousie Aux Quatre Vents to finish seventh at the Eastern Canadian Midget Volleyball Championships. The Selects beat Dalhousie in two games 15-6, 15-3. The Selects had finished fourth in their pool with a 3-2 record despite a big upset over the eventual finalists, the Scarborough Titans. Peel defeated the Titans 5-15, 15-10, 15-12. Those were the only two games the Titans lost in six matches before being defeated by the Hamilton Seekers in the final. Allie Hajer, Faith Malinosky and Kathy Campbell of Georgetown play for the Selects.

Simone nets bronze

Maria Simone of Georgetown won a bronze medal for her floor routine at the Women's Youth Provincial Championships on May 3-4 in Cambridge. Strong showings in her other three events helped Simone, a member of Team Futures Gymnastics Club, secure one of the top-10 overall positions in Ontario for the level 1/11 year-old division.
