Larry Cain is keynote speaker at chamber event

The Halton Hills and Milton Chambers of Commerce and the Halton Industry Education Council (HIEC) have come together to organize the Mayor's Breakfast, on May 27, that will help provide answers to questions about education, technology and the work world.

The event will be held at Halton Hills Place, at 3090 Steeles Ave. in Milton, 7-9:30 a.m. Registration deadline is May 23 and the cost is $25 per person.

This year special guest, speaking about motivation will be Larry Cain, Canadian Olympic medalist of the 1984 games in Los Angeles and teacher at St. Mildred Lightbourn in Oakville. He will give a presentation on the search for personal success. His message and personal experiences will be of valuable interest to people, especially students, who are uncertain about their future and what it takes to achieve success.

Cain explores 12 factors including dreams, setting goals and the willingness to risk failure, that he believes are the keys to achieving success.

For a registration form, contact HIEC by telephone at (905) 634-2575 or fax (905) 634-2705.

Hiring practices is focus of workshop

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, in association with the North Halton Cultural Awareness Council, will host a Business Lunch and Learn workshop on Hiring, Human Resources and Human Rights: The Hiring Process—What All Employers Need to Know.

The event will take place on Thursday, May 29 at the Georgetown Golf Club located at the corner of River Road and 10th Line, from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lunch will be served at noon. The price is $15 and is open to all businesses. Reservations must be made before May 25 by contacting the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce at 877-7119.

The workshop includes Mervin Witter, the Ontario regional director of the Canadian Human Rights Commission who will conduct a seminar regarding the jurisdiction of the new federal employment equity act. Ontario Human Rights Commission personnel will present human rights issues as related to interviewing and consultant Wendy Robertson will comment on fair and equitable hiring practices.
