Wellness Fair attended by 300 seniors

The Georgetown Seniors Centre held a seniors' information and wellness fair on March 24. Roughly 300 seniors viewed a variety of exhibits and attended some of the 12 seminars on all aspects of life, such as health, security, finances, hobbies and products. The centre thanks the local Halton businesses and service providers who participated in the fair.

Our guests were also invited to visit the Halton Hills Community

Support and Information office and the Supportive Housing office, also located in the Georgetown Indoor Mall. Lorraine From and a team of centre volunteers were responsible for a busy kitchen. Duane Frerichs won the 50/50 draw for the day. The exhibitors also donated gifts, which were drawn. The organizers of the event were Ruth Michasiw, June Gilson, Billie Idzi, Duane Frerichs, Helen McNeil, and Adriana Lawless.

The centre will be having a craft sale on Saturday, April 4 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the centre in the Indoor Mall.
